Parties involved are as follows, Andrey V. Runov, Anna Vujovic (Andrey's Attorney), Caitlin Mannix (Anna's legal aid), Anthony F. Golick (Prosecuting Attorney), D. Field (Deputy Prosecuting Attorney), Jill H. Sasser (Commissioner), Scott A. Collier (Superior Court Judge).

With a case number 21-3-01443-06 in the Clark County Washington Family Law court, initiated by Andrey V. Runov, Legal Separation between Andrey V. Runov and Jennifer Lyn Ryalls

15th Day of March, 2022

Comes now Jennifer Lyn Ryalls, Trustee (hereinafter "Affiant") being competent to testify and being over the age of twenty-one years, after first being duly affirmed according to tell the truth to the facts related herein states that Affiant has first-hand knowledge and belief that these facts are true to the best of Affiant's knowledge and belief, and;

All parties were properly served the Documents listed within this Affidavit.

On 08-03-2021 Affiant was given notice requesting Affiant and Affiant's three children to leave Affiant's place of Residence at 15000 Spirit Lake Hwy in Toutle, WA. This request was due to the fact that Andrey chose to no longer work at Havilah Retreat Center which was an exchange for housing at said residence. Thereby purposefully making Andrey's wife (at the time) along with three children homeless and did nothing to resolve the homelessness. Which is in violation of Article 25 in paragraph 1 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. Please see EXHIBIT 1

On or around 08-28-2021 Affiant and Affiant's children moved out of the Spirit Lake Hwy residence and was on route to a home in Pennsylvania. Affiant stayed at Taylor Anderson's house for a couple days to wrap up some business in town and at church prior to going to Pennsylvania. Affiant had been offered a place to stay by one of Affiant's friends and Affiant accepted the offer due to the fact that all other attempts to find housing locally was unsuccessful. The move was discussed with Andrey shortly after the notice to vacate the Spirit Lake Hwy home as it was apparent Andrey was intentionally ignoring the approaching homelessness of Andrey's family.

On 08-30-2021 Affiant was served COURT'S AUTOMATIC TEMPORARY ORDER signed by Scott A. Collier wherein the order stated that Affiant was unable to take children out of State until both parents came to an agreement which is in violation of Article 9 wherein the Affiant was subjected to arbitrary arrest and detention without a hearing therefore prolonging the first human rights violation of homelessness. Please see EXHIBIT 2. A week following being served Affiant went to the Clark County Clerk's office to find out more about what the order was grounded on. There were two other documents that were to be served to Affiant that werenotwhich is in violation of due process. One of those documents was PETITION FOR LEGAL SEPERATION and the second SUMMONS: NOTICE ABOUT MARRIAGE OR DOMESTIC PARTNERSHIP, in which on the later document there is a notice of 20-day response or default. Affiant believes the lack of due process was an attempt by Andrey to force Affiant into default. Please see EXHIBIT 3 and EXHIBIT 4. Since being served Affiant and children remained homeless.

On 09-8-2021 Affiant filed RESPONSE TO PETITION ABOUT A MARRIAGE at the Clark County Clerk's office. Please see EXHIBIT 5. Affiant was advised to go to the court facilitator for advice on what documents to file. The facilitator filled out the WASHINGTON STATE CHILD SUPPORT SCHEDULE WORKSHEET wherein in said document the facilitator inputted an income amount for Affiant regardless of Affiant not having an income. Facilitator also advised to file a PARENTING PLAN, FINANCIAL DECLARATION, MOTION FOR TEMPORARY FAMILY LAW ORDER AND RESTRAINING ORDER, WASHINGTON STATE CHILD SUPPORT SCHEDULE and NOTICE OF HEARING further prolonging Affiant's homelessness and ability to find an income Along with undue stress on Affiant and Affiant's three children.

On 10-5-2021 Affiant filed PARENTING PLAN to the Clark County Clerk and filed proof of delivery to Petitioner. Please see EXHIBIT 6

On 11-01-2021 Affiant received a notice stating Andrey entered into counsel with Anna Vujovic, WSBA #53785 a Washington State Attorney. Please see EXHIBIT 7 At this time Andrey had the means to solve the homeless problem for his children and failed to do so. Affiant was not receiving any support financially nor was Andrey caring for Affiant's three children.

On 11-15-2021 Affiant filed with the Clark County Clerk's office AFFIDAVIT OF FACT please see EXHIBIT 8, PROOF OF RESIDENTIAL LEASE TERMINATION please see EXHIBIT 9, MOTION FOR TEMPORARY FAMILY LAW ORDER AND RESTRAINING ORDER please see EXHIBIT 10, FINANCIAL DECLARATION please see EXHIBIT 11, and WASHINGTON STATE CHILD SUPPORT SCHEDULE WORKSHEET please see EXHIBIT 12 and SEALED FINANCIAL SOURCE DOCUMENT please see EXHIBIT 13. Within these documents Affiant was pleading with the court to be able to move to Affiant's home with Affiant's children. Also, in these documents Affiant was requesting a restraining order and a thorough explanation of why. Andrey Runov struggles with drinking and abuse. Please see EXHIBIT 46 for a copy of Andreys back ground check as to evidence of Andreys character. Meanwhile the Affiant and children are still homeless, under court order to stay in one place while homeless while Affiant having to defend Affiant from false accusation from an Abusive alcoholic while the courts and Emmanuel Baptist Church watch without stepping in to help.

On 12-01-2021 Affiant received the following documents in the mail from Andrey's Attorney, please see EXHIBIT 14. Included were the following documents, WASHINGTON STATE CHILD SUPPORT SCHEDULE WORKSHEET please see EXHIBIT 15, PROPOSED PARENTING PLAN please see EXHIBIT 16, DECLARATION OF PETITIONER IN RESPONSE TO RESPONDENTS MOTION FOR TEMPORARY FAMILY LAW ORDER please see EXHIBIT 17, DECLARATION OF CHRIS BOXWELL please see EXHIBIT 18, DECLARATION OF JAMES MCVICKER please see EXHIBIT 19, DECLARATION OF ELIJAH RUNOV please see EXHIBIT 20 and DECLARATION OF ANDRE I. RYALLS please see EXHIBIT 21. Within these documents Andrey is attempting to paint a picture of Affiant being a horrible mother and has joined some religious cult in violation of Article 16 paragraph 1 article 18 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. Neither the court nor the prosecutor nor the lawyer have stepped in to stop the human rights violations and in fact aided Andrey in them. These documents show Andreys involvement in rounding up the community and church against Affiant in an attempt to make Andrey appear as though Andrey is some sort of victim and that the Affiant has lost a sense of reality. Affiant experienced many people turning their backs on Affiant during this time.

On 12-06-2021 Affiant filed REBUTTAL TO DECLARATION OF PETITIONER IN RESPONSE TO RESPONDENT MOTION FOR TEMPORARY FAMILY LAW ORDER at the Clark County Clerk's office and published it at the reigbulletin.org/notice/Jennifer-lyn-runov/ please see EXHIBIT 22 and for Andreys declaration that Affiant was Rebutting EXHIBIT 16. Affiant attempted to correct the human rights violations and received nothing but indifference from all parties.

Affiant received a letter from Anthony F Golick Prosecuting Attorney regarding the case. The letter was stated Affiant was required to provide all further filed documents to Anthony's office. Please see EXHIBIT 23. Affiant did not initiate contact with the Prosecuting Attorney's office.

On 12-08-2021 was a Court Hearing with Commissioner Sasser, Anna Vujovic, D. Field and Andrey V Runov. Affiant had completed all required paper needed in order for Affiant to be able to move to Affiant's new home with Affiant's children and protect Affiant and children from a very unstable man Andrey Runov. The court denied a restraining order and denied Affiant the ability to move with children out of State further prolonging Affiant and children's homelessness. The court also Advised Affiant to go the Department of social Services to seek housing instead of allowing Affiant to go to housing Affiant had arranged. The court ordered Andrey to pay child support and Alimony wherein Affiant has yet to see. The court also ordered Andrey to pay on a line of credit that was used to purchase Andreys vehicle and again Andrey has to this day yet to pay and is on its way to collections.

Affiant requested that the human rights violations be lifted and the court denied said requests and gave Andrey more rights and ordered the Affiant to allow visitation of Andrey's homeless children every weekend. Further complicating Affiant's situation as Affiant would be in violation of the court if Affiant did not accommodate Andreys granted visitation on the second.

On 12-13-2021 Affiant received an Email from Andreys Attorney regarding email exchanges moving forward. please see EXHIBIT 24.

On 12-14-2022 Affiant received a letter from Anthony F. Golick with a TEMPORARY CHILD SUPPORT ORDER and WORKSHEET that Anthony's office put together based on the court hearing on 12-08-2021 please see EXHIBIT 25. Prosecutor furthered the human rights violation by stating that the Affiant could not leave the state and Prosecutor perpetuated homelessness of Affiant and children. The court continued to pile obligations on the Affiant monthly while Andrey was given benefits and support from the court, church and other community member.

On or around 12-15-2022 Affiant and Affiant's children were asked by Taylor Anderson and her mother to leave their home. At this time Affiant began to search for housing solutions while complying with the courts orders of staying within the children's school district and allowing Andrey visitation every weekend. Housing required three times rent amount and a deposit both of which Affiant did not have. Andrey claimed all work funds regardless of marital agreement of Affiant raising the children and Andrey working. Andrey completely cut Affiant off from all funds starting in July as a way of controlling Affiant into a desperate situation and in the end back in Andreys hands. Housing in the State of Washington is unaffordable for any single parent.

On 12-20-2021 Affiant received an Email from Andreys attorney with a copy of TEMPORARY FAMILY LAW ORDER AND PARENTING PLAN filed in the Clark County Clerk's officethat Anna Vujovic had sent to The Deputy Prosecuting Attorney's Office. please see EXHIBIT 26.

On 12-28-2021 Affiant received an Email from Anna Vujovic with attached Child Support Order and Worksheet. The email was also sent to Deputy Prosecuting Attorney's Office. please see EXHIBIT 27

On 12-29-2021 Court Hearing with commissioner Jill Sasser, D. Fields, Anna Vujovic and Andrey V. Runov. Affiant pleaded with the court to allow Affiant to go to Affiant's home with Affiant's children and was again denied. Jill H. Sasser advised Affiant to file a motion with Scott F. Collier in order to have the order preventing Affiant from moving with children removed. Affiant shared with the court that Andrey had been in contempt of court. Andrey was not picking up the children every weekend for Andreys weekly visits. Regardless of the fact that the homeless Affiant and children prepared for the children to be picked up causing undue stress as Affiant's children would cry every time it was time to get ready to see Andrey. Jill H. Sasser advised Affiant to complete a contempt of court motion, which Affiant did on a later date. Jill H. Sasser signed the documents that Anna Vujovic and the Prosecuting Office where in agreement of regardless of Affiant objecting to what was within them.

On 12-30-2021 Affiant received a letter in the mail from the Deputy Prosecuting Attorney's office regarding the Jill H. Sasser signed orders. Affiant did not agree to Jill's signed document due to statements that Affiant did not agree to. The letter basically stated that Affiant was required to sign the documents. Please see EXHIBIT 28

Affiant filed a hearing request with Scott A. Collier set on Jan 19th at 9Am motioning to relocate with children and a removal of orders preventing Affiant from moving with children. Please see EXHIBIT 29
Affiant Filed MOTION FOR TEMPORARY ORDER ALLOWING MOVE WITH CHILDREN (RELOCATION) please see EXHIBIT 30

Affiant filed PARENTING PLAN in the Clark County Clerk's office. please see EXHIBIT 31

On 12-31-2022 Affiant had some correspondence sent through email to Anna Vujovic regarding taking the joint owned trailer off of property so that Affiant and children could live in it while resolving the legal process. Affiant's aunt managed to get in contact with Andrey and have him agree to Affiant taking the trailer to Emmanuel Baptists church parking lot. Please see EXHIBIT 32.

Affiant asked Emmanuel Baptist church in particular, its Pastor, Jeff regarding Affiant and Affiant's children temporarily staying in the parking lot in the trailer. There was already a couple that was staying in a trailer on the parking lot. A few days after Affiant's Aunt got ahold of Andrey and had him agree to this, the church decided to not allow Affiant to stay on the property. Non-members of the church were given a place to stay on the church property but not a member that had been serving the church for years who was in need.

On 01-03-2022 Affiant completed a MOTION FOR CONTEMPT HEARING as per advised by Jill Sasser on the 12-29-2021 Hearing. Affiant brought the completed motion to Jill Sasser's assistant Rebecca Wittenborn located in the family law annex as per directed by the Clark County clerk. Affiant was only allowed to communicate with the assistant of the office through an intercom outside the door. Affiant was directed to place the Motion for contempt hearing in a box outside the door. The office representative would not give Affiant any documentation that she made the request. Affiant was told that Affiant may or may not get the hearing based on whatever the judge decided. Affiant was never contacted. Affiant's complaint of Andreys Contempt of court were ignored. And no correspondence has been made regarding the request to this day. Please see EXHIBIT 33

On 01-04-2022 Affiant's aunt sent an email to Andreys Attorney regarding an update of the housing situation. Please see EXHIBIT 34

Email statement from Taylor Anderson regarding Taylor and her mother's request for Affiant and the children to leave. Please see EXHIBIT 35

On 01-05-2022 Affiant emailed a LETTER OF INTENT to Anna Vujovic. The letter was regarding Affiant's need to move by 01-15-2022. Please see EXHIBIT 36

On and around this time Affiant was staying most days at the church to avoid being at Taylor's house. There were also occasional nights spent at church because of how late Affiant was working on legal documents for this case. Taylor and her mother did not like it if Affiant came to their house past 8pm.

On 01-06-2022 Affiant received an email from Anna Vujovic stating Andrey is objecting to Affiant moving with children and that Andrey is proceeding with the courts and requesting a Guardian ad Litem. Affiant requested address of where children will be. Please see EXHIBIT 37

On 01-08-2022 Affiant gave the children to Andrey with all of their belongings due to increased pressure from Taylor and Taylor's mother and Affiant's children were residing at and in order to keep Affiant and children's wellbeing from further harm Affiant made a very hard decision. For example, of what kind of pressure, Affiant was pulled aside and asked to not drink their drinking water and that the children were not allowed to go down stairs to grab something to eat regardless of Affiant buying the majority of the food with food stamps. There are many other examples similar to this.

On 01-10-2022 Affiant received an email from Anna Vujovic with attached PARENTING PLAN and CR2A along with a statement of "I will need to file motions tomorrow if we do not receive signed orders today". Along with the address of where Andrey is claiming to live with the children. The address provided is Andrey's parents' house in which Andrey nor children are not allowed at due to Andrey's mother being sick with Covid and other complications. Affiant has proved these facts that Andrey has been lying about where Andrey has been residing, Affiant was ignored again and again. While Affiant complies with the court and Andrey repeatedly broke court orders, lied and the court continued to aid the criminal. Please see EXHIBIT 38

Affiant replied to this email with the statement of Affiant will no longer be participating in their courts. Please see EXHIBIT 39

On 01-11-2022 Affiant received an email from Caitlin Mannix with the following attached documents 1. PROPOSED PARENTING PLAN 2. OBJECTION ABOUT MOVING WITH CHILDREN AND PETITION ABOUT CHANGING PARENTING/CUSTODY ORDER 3. DECLARATION OF PETITIONER IN RESPONSE TO RESPONDENT'S MOTION FOR TEMPORARY FAMILY LAW ORDER. Within these documents there was a ton of false statements along with the common claim of Affiant being in a religious cult. Please see EXHIBIT 40

On 01-18-2022 Affiant received a letter from Tracy Haxby informing of the hearing Affiant requested for on Jan 19th was going to be set over to Jan 26th. Please see EXHIBIT 41

On 01-21-2022 Affiant sent Anna Vujovic and Caitlin Mannix an email with a link to RESPONSE TO DECLARATION OF PETITIONER IN RESPONDENT'S MOTION FOR TEMPORARY FAMILY LAW ORDER, published in the reign Bulletin newspaper. Please see EXHIBIT 41

On 01-26-2022 Affiant received an email from Caitlin Mannix with attached documents, MOTION TO APPOINT A GUARDIAN AD LITEM, PETITIONER'S DECLARATION IN SUPPORT OF THE GUARDIAN AD LITEM AND NOTICE HEARING. Please see EXHIBIT 42

The hearing Andrey requested was for 02-16-2022

The Hearing that was re-scheduled on this day Affiant did not attend. The Hearing was originally motioned to request a move with children.

On 02-12-2022 Affiant sent an email to Anna Vujovic, Caitlin Mannix and Andrey Runov regarding Affiant no longer accepting emails as legal correspondence and that Affiant will be taking these matters the Human Rights tribunal for review. Please see EXHIBIT 43

On 02-14-2022 Affiant received an email from Caitlin Mannix informing Affiant the previously scheduled hearing set at 2-16-2022 has been set over to 03-16-2022. Please see EXHIBIT 44

On 02-15-2022 Affiant received an email from Caitlin Mannix with an attached letter from D. Fields regarding the previously mentioned hearing set over. Please see EXHIBIT 45

On 03-10-2022 Affiant received an email from Caitlin Mannix stating the court hearing set for 03-16-2022 has been stricken.

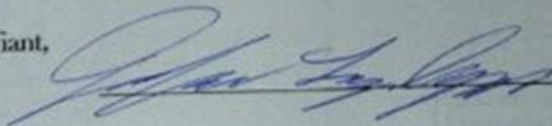

As of 03-15-2022 there has been no other communications between mentioned aforementioned parties.

7. Jurisdiction over the children (RCW 26.27.201 – .221, .231, .261, .271)

Does not apply. My spouse and I have no children together who are still dependent.

The court can approve a Parenting Plan for the children my spouse and I have together because (check all that apply; if a box applies to all of the children, you may write "the children" instead of listing names):

Exclusive, continuing jurisdiction – A Washington court has already made a custody order or parenting plan for the children, and the court still has authority to make other orders for (children's names): _____

Home state jurisdiction – Washington is the children's home state because (check all that apply):

(Children's names): Isabella, Alina, Daniel lived in Washington with a parent or someone acting as a parent for at least the 6 months just before this case was filed, or if the children are less than 6 months old, they have lived in Washington with a parent or someone acting as a parent since birth.

There were times the children were not in Washington in the 6 months just before this case was filed (or since birth if they are less than 6 months old), but those were temporary absences.

(Children's names): Isabella, Alina, Daniel do not live in Washington right now, but Washington was the children's home state sometime in the 6 months just before this case was filed, and a parent or someone acting as a parent of the children still lives in Washington.

(Children's names): _____ do not have another home state.

No home state or home state declined – No court of any other state (or tribe) has the jurisdiction to make decisions for (children's names): _____

_____, or a court in the _____ children's home state (or tribe) decided it is better to have this case in Washington and:

- The children and a parent or someone acting as a parent have ties to Washington beyond just living here; and
- There is a lot of information (substantial evidence) about the children's care, protection, education and relationships in this state.

Other state declined – The courts in other states (or tribes) that might be (children's names): _____'s home state have refused to take this case because it is better to have this case in Washington.

Temporary emergency jurisdiction – The court can make decisions for (children's names): Isabella, Alina, Daniel because the children are in this state now and were abandoned here or need emergency protection because the children (or the children's parent, brother or sister) were abused or threatened with abuse. (Check one):

A custody case involving the children was filed in the children's home state (name of state or tribe): _____. Washington should take temporary emergency jurisdiction over the children until the Petitioner can get a court order from the children's home state (or tribe).

There is no valid custody order or open custody case in the children's home state (name of state or tribe): _____. If no case is filed in the children's home state (or tribe) by the time the children have been in Washington for 6 months, (date): _____, Washington should have final jurisdiction over the children.

Other reason (specify): _____

The court cannot approve a Parenting Plan because the court does not have jurisdiction over the children.

8. Parenting Plan

My spouse and I have no children together who are under 18 years old.

I ask the court to order a Parenting Plan for the children my spouse and I have together. I will file and serve my proposed Parenting Plan (form FL All Family 140) (check one):

at the same time as this Petition.

later.

The court cannot approve a Parenting Plan because the court does not have jurisdiction over the children.

9. Child Support

My spouse and I have no children together who are still dependent.

Court Order – I ask the court to order child support (including medical support) according to state law for the children my spouse and I have together. (You may ask for a court order of child support even if there is already an administrative order. The court order will replace the administrative order to the extent the court order is different.)

I ask the court to order my spouse to pay his/her proportionate share of

- (check all that apply):  day care expenses long-distance transportation expenses education expenses
 post-secondary (college or vocational school) support other child-related expenses (specify): _____

I ask the court to order that we have the right to claim the children as dependents for purposes of personal tax exemptions and associated tax credits on our tax forms as follows (describe):
 _____

Important! Although the personal tax exemptions are currently suspended through tax year 2025, other tax benefits may flow from claiming a child as dependent.

Administrative Order – There is no need for the court to make a child support order. The DSHS Division of Child Support (DCS) has already established an administrative child support order for the children my spouse and I have together in DCS case number/s: _____. I am not asking the court to make a different child support order.

DCS child support orders do not cover tax issues or post-secondary (college or vocational school) support. Because these issues are not in the administrative order, I ask the court to order (check all that apply):

we have the right to claim the children as dependents for purposes of personal tax exemptions and associated tax credits on our tax forms as follows (describe):
 _____

my spouse to pay his/her proportionate share of post-secondary (college or vocational school) support.

10. Children from other relationships

I have the following dependent children who are not from this relationship (list name/s and age/s): Elijah Runov 15 years of age.

My spouse has the following dependent children who are not from this relationship (list name/s and age/s): Andre Ryalls 16, Nick Baturin 13.

If you checked "Disagree" for any of the sections, list your reasons here:

Section #: 6.b. Reasons: Vladimir and Vera Runov do not have legal rights to spend time with the children. There is no court order or any reason for a court order to issue such legal rights to the grandparents.

Section #: 7 Reasons: There is no need for a temporary emergency jurisdiction for Isabella, Alina and Daniel. The children were not abandoned nor were living outside of the State of Washington.

Section #: 9. Reasons: The Respondent does not agree that Respondent should pay for the Petitioners transportation costs as that would take away funds from the children's many needs. The Respondent also does not agree with the Petitioner being able to claim the children as dependents on Petitioners taxes. Deductions should be granted to the parent providing the daily needs of the children.

The Respondent asks the court for an order for the Petitioner to pay $1,215.00 monthly in child support. This amount was calculated off of the Washington State guideline for child support for someone making $3,000.00 monthly. The Petitioner makes from $4000.00 to $5000.00 monthly.

Section #: 12 Reasons: The Petitioner and the Respondent own property located at 382 Oylar rd Toledo, WA. The Respondent asks for 50% of the proceeds of or 50% of the value of said property if the Petitioner decides to keep it.

Section #: 13 Reasons: The Respondent asks the court to order a dividing of the remaining possessions that were acquired over the span of the marriage.

Kubota Tractor, its accessories, its key and it's paper work- should go to Respondent

Ammo for Respondents firearms and Vests- should go to Respondent

Rv- should go to Petitioner

*3 Coleman trail bikes-*should go to petitioner

Generator- should go to Petitioner

Construction and mechanic tools – should go to Petitioner

The total of Petitioners possessions is equivalent to the total of Respondents possessions that is requested.

Section #: 14 Reasons: Over the past 11 years thousands of dollars have been allocated to paying court fees, court fines, probation costs, domestic violence classes, AA classes, ignition interlock and so much more, all a result of the Petitioners disregard for the Law. While paying these debts the Respondent and children's quality of life suffered greatly. These court debts that were paid started before the Petitioners and Respondents marriage and grew as the Petitioner continued to disregard law and receive more criminal charges. In addition to the above, the Petitioner has a vehicle in his brother in laws name that was purchased with funds that could have been used to pay on this debt. The vehicle is currently worth ~6,000. Based on these facts I do not agree this debt of $9,800.00 should be shared but that the Petitioner should be responsible for 100% of it.

Respondent does agree that all debts accrued after the separation date of June 06, 2021 should be each individual's responsibility.

Section #: 15 Reasons: The Respondent requests the court to order the Petitioner to pay a monthly alimony amount of $750.00. Respondent was told in the beginning of the marriage to drop out of college and career and care for the family. Due to this arrangement the Respondent has been out of the work place and lacks a degree to acquire a decent paying job.

Section #: 16 Reasons: The Petitioner has the tools, connections and work portfolio to be able to afford any court costs accrued from this case. Putting any fees or court cost on the Respondent will only affect the children's needs being met.

Section #: 17 Reasons: The Respondent does agree that the Petitioner should be able to file a Protection Order. However, the Respondent wanted to make note in the record that there has been no aggression or threats of aggression or harassment from the Respondent towards the Petitioner.

Section #: 18 Reasons: Similar to Section 16, the Respondent does agree that the Petitioner should be able to file a Restraining Order. However, the Respondent has not hurt nor threatened the Petitioner to cause the Petitioner to file such order.

5. Decision-making

When the children are with you, you are responsible for them. You can make day-to-day decisions for the children when they are with you, including decisions about safety and emergency health care. Major decisions must be made as follows.

a. Who can make major decisions about the children?

Type of Major Decision	Joint (parents make these decisions together)	Limited (only the parent named below has authority to make these decisions)
School / Educational	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> (Name): Jennifer Lyn Runov
Health care (not emergency)	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> (Name): Jennifer Lyn Runov
Other: Residence	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> (Name): Jennifer Lyn Runov
Other:	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/> (Name):
Other:	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/> (Name):

b. Reasons for limits on major decision-making, if any:

There are no reasons to limit major decision-making.

Major decision-making must be limited because one of the parents has problems as described in 3.a. above.

Major decision-making should be limited because (check all that apply):

Both parents are against shared decision-making.

One of the parents does not want to share decision-making and this is reasonable because of:

problems as described in 3.b. above.

the history of each parent's participation in decision-making.

the parents' ability and desire to cooperate with each other in decision-making.

6. Dispute Resolution

Important! After this parenting plan is signed by a judge or commissioner, if you and the other parent disagree about shared decisions or what parts of this plan mean, the court may require you to use a dispute resolution provider before going back to court. The court may only require a dispute resolution provider if there are no limitations in 3.a. above. If a dispute resolution provider is checked below, the parents may, and sometimes must, use this provider before filing a Petition to Change a Parenting Plan or a Motion for Contempt for not following the plan. Check your county's Local Court Rules.

a. The parents will go to (check one):

The dispute resolution provider below (before they may go to court):

Mediation (mediator or agency name): _____

Arbitration (arbitrator or agency name): _____

Counseling (counselor or agency name): _____

If a dispute resolution provider is not named above or if the named provider is no longer available, the parents may agree on a provider or ask the court to name one.

Important! Unless there is an emergency, the parents must participate in the dispute resolution process listed above in good faith, before going to court for disagreements about joint decisions or what parts of this plan mean. This section does not apply to disagreements about money or support.

Court (without having to go to mediation, arbitration, or counseling)

(If you check this box, skip to section 7 below and do not fill out 6.b.)

b. If mediation, arbitration, or counseling is required, one parent must notify the other parent by (check one):  certified mail  other (specify): _____

The parents will pay for the mediation, arbitration, or counseling services as follows (check one).

(Name): _____ will pay _____%.

(Name): _____ will pay _____%.

based on each parents' Proportional Share of Income (percentage) from line 6 of the Child Support Worksheet.

as decided through the dispute resolution process.

What to expect in the dispute resolution process:

- Preference shall be given to carrying out the parenting plan.
- If you reach an agreement, it must be put into writing, signed, and both parents must get a copy.
- If the court finds that you have used or frustrated the dispute resolution process without a good reason, the court can order you to pay financial sanctions (penalties) including the other parent's legal fees.
- You may go back to court if the dispute resolution process doesn't solve the disagreement or if you disagree with the arbitrator's decision.

7. Custodian

The custodian is (name). Jennifer Lyn Runov solely for the purpose of all state and federal statutes which require a designation or determination of custody. Even though one parent is called the custodian, this does not change the parenting rights and responsibilities described in this plan.

(Washington law generally refers to parenting time and decision-making, rather than custody. However, some state and federal laws require that one person be named the custodian. The custodian is the person with whom the children are scheduled to reside a majority of their time.)

➤ Parenting Time Schedule (Residential Provisions)

Check one:

- Limited schedule only – The children live with (name): Jennifer Lyn Runov and have no contact with the other parent except as described in section 4.

13. Moving with the Children (Relocation)

Anyone with majority or substantially equal residential time (at least 45 percent) who wants to move with the children must notify every other person who has court-ordered time with the children.

Move to a different school district

If the move is to a different school district, the relocating person must complete the form Notice of Intent to Move with Children (FL Relocate 701) and deliver it at least 60 days before the intended move.

Exceptions:

- If the relocating person could not reasonably have known enough information to complete the form in time to give 60 days' notice, s/he must give notice within five days after learning the information.
- If the relocating person is relocating to a domestic violence shelter or moving to avoid a clear, immediate, and unreasonable risk to health or safety, notice may be delayed 21 days.
- If information is protected under a court order or the address confidentiality program, it may be withheld from the notice.
- A relocating person who believes that giving notice would put her/himself or a child at unreasonable risk of harm, may ask the court for permission to leave things out of the notice or to be allowed to move without giving notice. Use form Motion to Limit Notice of Intent to Move with Children (Ex Parte) (FL Relocate 702).

The Notice of Intent to Move with Children can be delivered by having someone personally serve the other party or by any form of mail that requires a return receipt.

If the relocating person wants to change the Parenting Plan because of the move, s/he must deliver a proposed Parenting Plan together with the Notice.

Move within the same school district

If the move is within the same school district, the relocating person still has to let the other parent know. However, the notice does not have to be served personally or by mail with a return receipt. Notice to the other party can be made in any reasonable way. No specific form is required.

Warning! If you do not notify...

A relocating person who does not give the required notice may be found in contempt of court. If that happens, the court can impose sanctions. Sanctions can include requiring the relocating person to bring the children back if the move has already happened, and ordering the relocating person to pay the other side's costs and lawyer's fees.

Right to object

A person who has court-ordered time with the children can object to a move to a different school district and/or to the relocating person's proposed Parenting Plan. If the move is within the same school district, the other party doesn't have the right to object to the move, but s/he may ask to change the Parenting Plan if there are adequate reasons under the modification law (RCW 26.09.260).

An objection is made by filing the Objection about Moving with Children and Petition about Changing a Parenting/Custody Order (Relocation) (form FL Relocate 721). File your Objection with the court and serve a copy on the relocating person and anyone else who has court-ordered time with the children. Service of the Objection must be by personal service or by mailing a copy to each person by any form of mail that requires a return receipt. The Objection must be filed and served no later than 30 days after the Notice of Intent to Move with Children was received.

Right to move

During the 30 days after the Notice was served, the relocating person may not move to a different school district with the children unless s/he has a court order allowing the move.

After the 30 days, if no Objection is filed, the relocating person may move with the children without getting a court order allowing the move.

After the 30 days, if an Objection has been filed, the relocating person may move with the children pending the final hearing on the Objection unless:

- The other party gets a court order saying the children cannot move, or
- The other party has scheduled a hearing to take place no more than 15 days after the date the Objection was served on the relocating person. (However, the relocating person may ask the court for an order allowing the move even though a hearing is pending if the relocating person believes that s/he or a child is at unreasonable risk of harm.)

The court may make a different decision about the move at a final hearing on the Objection.

Parenting Plan after move

If the relocating person served a proposed Parenting Plan with the Notice, and if no Objection is filed within 30 days after the Notice was served (or if the parties agree):

- Both parties may follow that proposed plan without being held in contempt of the Parenting Plan that was in place before the move. However, the proposed plan cannot be enforced by contempt unless it has been approved by a court.
- Either party may ask the court to approve the proposed plan. Use form Ex Parte Motion for Final Order Changing Parenting Plan – No Objection to Moving with Children (FL Relocate 706).

You can find forms about moving with children at:

Affidavit of Fact

DATE: 15th day of November in the year 2021

Comes now Jennifer Lyn Runov, Trustee (hereinafter "Affiant") being competent to testify and being over the age of twenty-one years, after first being duly affirmed according to tell the truth to the facts related herein states that Affiant has first-hand knowledge and belief that these facts are true to the best of Affiant's knowledge and belief, and;

This is a testimony of the abuse Affiant and Affiant's children have gone through over the past 11 years with Andrey.

Affiant began a relationship with Andrey V. Runov, (hereinafter "Andrey"), in the fall of 2009, and married on April 9th 2010. From the beginning of the relationship Andrey was physically, mentally and emotionally abusive. Andrey had a severe drinking problem that could never seem to be managed. Andrey had been in and out of drug use since the age of 15 when Andrey's mother had to help him get off of meth. Once Affiant met Andrey, Andrey was already neck high in court charges including license suspension, a pending case that led to vehicular assault and multiple DUI's in various counties including, Skamania, Clark, Multnomah and Tillamook. Affiant was unaware how bad all of the charges were until further into the relationship when at that point Affiant was emotionally and financially tied to Andrey and pregnant with Affiant's and Andrey's first child.

The Physical abuse started about a couple months into the relationship. Affiant and Andrey were already living together at that point. The abuse was a lot of punching of Affiant's skull and pulling of affiant's hair. The abuse would escalate when Andrey was intoxicated. There were a few accounts of police involvement, one of which Andrey was sent to jail and immediately following sent over to an immigration detention center, for a totaling of a 1-year sentence. The year sentence was a combination of charges one being Andrey's sentence of vehicular assault and the second domestic violence charges towards Affiant. The night of Andrey's arrest prior to the year sentence was a common scene. Andrey would be intoxicated, was in and out of the house along with various friends, coming back home and abusing Affiant. In that night specifically, guns were involved, where Andrey had forced Affiant to point a gun at Andrey and was attempting to make Affiant shoot Andrey. Affiant was pregnant at the time with first child. After the year of jail time the abuse toward Affiant was less but the aggression was not, especially while drinking. For example, there would be many fights of rage where Andrey would get very close to Affiant's face with physical expressions of threat. Constant fights continued on through the years and so did the drinking.

Prior to the relationship with Andrey the Affiant had a stable job, an outstanding credit score and money saved. Affiant was attending Washington State University on Affiant's third year towards a bachelor's degree in environmental science. A year into the relationship the Affiant had lost Affiant's job of about 6-years, credit score tanked and was led out of college. All of this was due to the physical, emotional and mental abuse. There would be constant fights causing an instable environment and an ever-decreasing mental ability to withstand a normal work schedule, attend classes and study. Prior to the relationship Andrey had thousands of dollars accumulated in court charges fees and tickets. The charges grew as the relationship went on. There were years of Paying collections, Court fees, Tickets, Ignition interlock, high risk insurance, probation costs, AA meetings, domestic violence classes and more. These classes limited Andrey's ability to work and support a growing family and increased the debt load. As soon as charges were paid off there would be a new ticket or charge. In addition to the charges, there were thousands of dollars spent on an immigration attorney, because of Andrey's Felony and misdemeanors. In the end he ended up losing Andrey's green card and is considered deportable.

The worst part of the abuse was the mental and emotional abuse. It was so bad that Affiant shut down from it and blocked it out. There were a few accounts affiant had tried to escape from the grip of the abuse from Andrey. Throughout the years Affiant has stayed with affiants Father, Aunt, Friend, and even went to the extreme of a hospital to flee extremely abusive situations. All of which Andrey had manipulated Andrey's way into making affiant believe that Andrey had changed, was no longer drinking and trying to do what is right. Every single time within a week or two it was right back to Andrey's abusive ways.

Attempting to leave this abusive relationship was extremely difficult for Affiant. The constant twisting of situations would put Affiant in a state of threat that caused hopelessness and confusion. For example, Andrey would hit Affiant and the reason would be that it was because something Affiant did to cause Andrey to hit Affiant. Or if Andrey would get drunk, it was because of something Affiant did that would be the reason. This led to a very low self-esteem and low self-worth for Affiant. In addition, Affiant was pushed to be isolated and not allowed to be involved in any groups without much hardship and attacks coming from Andrey. It would always lead to Affiant's involvement in the group being the reason for something else not working for Andrey. For example, Affiant was serving in a youth group every Wednesday, teaching children bible verses. That turned into a whole scene of Affiant is neglecting Andrey and house chores and that Affiant needs to step down. This was the same case for Affiant dropping out of college and losing Affiant's job, as well as any other group situation. Most recently Affiant was in an online group that helps people through difficult times by providing them guidance towards Jesus and His teachings. Andrey did not like that Affiant was spending any time with other people and would have constant drunken fights over it. Affiant has multiple witnesses of this behavior.

Some of these fights would lead to either Andrey leaving the house or Affiant being forced out of it. Both of which Andrey would make sure that Affiant had no funds to provide shelter for Affiant's children or pay for the current shelter that Affiant and children were living in at the time as a form of punishment. This caused Affiant to have an ever-present sense of insecurity to whether or not Affiant and children had a roof over their head, as at any moment it would be taken from them.

Exposure to this on-going mental and physical abuse in the household has affected the children's sense of stability and security. Though the physical abuse was never directed at the children, they did however witness it regularly. One of the children has problems being away from Affiant because he fears Affiant will die. This unusual attachment is because of witnessing the abuse from Andrey on Affiant and the resulting state Affiant would be in after the abuse.

Affiant has witnesses to this testimony of the distress the children underwent and the abuse inflicted on Affiant. Andrey has no personal relationship with any of Andrey's children. Andrey's three younger children do not want to visit Andrey. The children do not feel safe because of witnessing all of Andrey's fits of rage and abuse towards Affiant. Andrey shows signs of extreme alcohol abuse and mental health issues and Affiant is concerned for the safety of Andrey's children while in the care of Andrey.

After looking back over the past 11 years Affiant has come to realize that Andrey did not love Affiant or have Affiant's and children's best interest in mind. People do not hit, kick, verbally abuse, mock or destroy people they love. The whole relationship was a complete Lie. Affiant believes that immigration status security was a huge influence in why the extreme in control and isolation towards Affiant. Affiant believes the relationship was only kept as long as it had in order for Andrey to have confidence of his status here in the U.S.

Affiant has pages of texts from Andrey that shows a consistent pattern of Andrey's consistent and daily trials against Affiant wherein Andrey has Andrey's own court proceeding, places Affiant on trial and convicts Affiant with Bible verses and then proceeds to convict Affiant to Hell. Andrey further proceeds to try to convince the Affiant that Andrey is a partner with God and that God will enforce Andrey's daily convictions of Bible crimes against Affiant. Andrey's favorite term is "God knows" wherein Andrey's Mother repeats the same term over and over as a form of threat to comply to Andrey's command at the time whatever that may be that day, because the command changes every day. Andrey comes up with a command in Andrey's own mind. Andrey goes and finds the Bible verses that Andrey thinks apply to the command. Andrey proceeds with a trial and convicts Affiant to Hell for not complying with the command and repeats "God Knows". This happened for years and has increased over the last six months.

This affidavit could be at least 30 pages long, however the Affiant felt that a summarized version of the facts would paint a picture without becoming redundant.

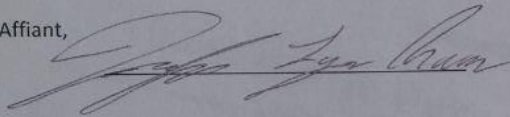

The Entities named within this Affidavit of Fact who the Affiant has claimed abusive behavior have Ten (10) days from the publication of Public Notice to give rebuttal or these claims stand as fact.

Affiant affirms that all that is stated within this Affidavit is hereby true and correct in Yahushua/Jesus name.

Further Affiant sayeth naught Signed on this 15th day of November in the 2021st year of the new covenant in Yahushua's/Jesus name (11/15/2021)

Andrey and Jennifer,

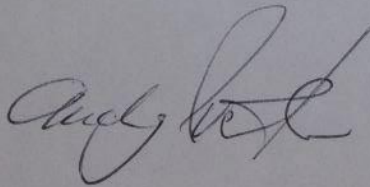

Per our contract, the 3-bedroom property is indeed to be occupied by property ground keepers who live and work at the property. I was brought to my attention that Andrey is no longer living on the property and has only documented 37 hours of labor within the month of July. I understand that life happens and situations arise that cannot be foreseen. I have verbally spoken to Andrey and he understands the situation and is cooperating with us.

This is a written notice of issue that need to be addressed immediately.

For the reminder of your time on the property it is strictly prohibited to use the pool, property equipment and the use of facilities for your personal use. Consider using the time left for work, packing, organizing and cleaning of the 3-bedroom house. Per our verbal understanding, you stated the you will leave the property by August 31, 2021. We will consider this as your final month at Havilah Retreat Center. Please leave the house in the same condition that it was when you entered it.

Thank you for cooperating with us and we wish you well where ever you may be. May God bless you.

Respondent and children are currently residing in a friend's house, and is putting a strain on both families. Petitioner is currently working out of State at his new full-time job.

➤ Reasons for my requests

15. Why are you asking the court for the orders you checked above? (Explain):

- If you need additional space use the Declaration form FL All Family 135.
- If you are asking for a parenting plan, also fill out the Information for Temporary Parenting Plan, form FL All Family 139, and a proposed Parenting Plan, form FL All Family 140.
- If you are asking for child support, also fill out the Child Support Worksheets. If you have received public assistance for any child in this case, also fill out the Public Assistance Declaration, form FL All Family 132.

- If you are asking for any order involving money (including child support), also fill out the Financial Declaration, form FL All Family 131, and file the required financial records.
- If you are asking to prohibit weapons or order surrender, give your reasons at the end of this section.
- If you are asking to change an earlier temporary order, give the date of the earlier order and explain how circumstances have changed since then.

5. Petitioner is using money as a way of manipulating the Respondent and does not think it is his responsibility to support his children. "I will give you money only if you do this", are words heard often from the Petitioner. Support is not being paid yet Petitioner is spending thousands on an attorney and new phones and gadgets.

7. Petitioner and Respondent have acquired a tractor and RV over the span of the marriage and need to liquidate both due to the dissolution of marriage and financial strain. Both are sitting on a property that is near foreclosure and if the ability to sell assets is not acquired, a huge loss will result. Respondent requests ability to sell the two assets and for Petitioner to give the keys to both assets to the Respondent in order to do so.

10. Respondent asks the court to assign the BECU line of credit debt to the Petitioner. The Petitioner has all the tools and a truck that is equivalent to the debt owed on the line of credit. In addition, the tools were all an investments giving Petitioner the ability to work self employed as a mechanic and all fields of construction.

14. Respondent and children were kicked out of a place of residence due to Petitioner not showing up to work. See attached documents. The terms of the residence was Petitioner to be the grounds keeper of the location the residence was at. Respondent then found an opportunity to exchange work being a rental manager in exchange for occupying one of the rentals. Respondent was served court documents the night before leaving to said opportunity. The Respondent and children are now stuck in a friend's house that is bringing stress to everyone and Respondent has lost that job and housing opportunity. Yet, the Petitioner, after the court order, has started a job and is residing on site in southern Oregon and does not provide support. Respondent has texts upon texts to prove that the whole court process was started by Petitioner in order to control and suppress Respondent and make sure she does not get on her own two feet. The Petitioner has made it very clear that if he can not posses Respondent and children that he will make it so that no one can be around the Respondent and children. Respondent has texts to prove these statement as well.

Superior Court of Washington, County Clark

In re marriage of:

No. 21-3-01443-06

Petitioner:

Proposed Parenting Plan
(PPP / PPT / PP)

ANDREY V. RUNOV

Clerk's action required: 1

And Respondent:

JENNIFER L. RUNOV

Proposed Parenting Plan

1. This parenting plan is a Proposal by a parent Andrey Runov. It is not a signed court order (PPP).

2. Children - This parenting plan is for the following children:

	Child's name	Age
1.	Daniel Runov	10
2.	Alina Runov	8
3.	Isabella Runov	3

3. Reasons for putting limitations on a parent (under RCW 26.09.191)

a. Abandonment, neglect, child abuse, domestic violence, assault, or sex offense.

Neither parent has any of these problems.

b. Other problems that may harm the children's best interests:

Neither parent has any of these problems.

4. Limitations on a parent

Does not apply. There are no reasons for limitations checked in 3.a. or 3.b. above.

5. Decision-making

When the children are with you, you are responsible for them. You can make day-to-day decisions for the children when they are with you, including decisions about safety and emergency health care. Major decisions must be made as follows:

a. Who can make major decisions about the children?

Type of Major Decision	Joint (parents make these decisions together)	Limited (only the parent named below has authority to make these decisions)
School / Educational	[X]
Health care (not emergency)	[X]

b. Reasons for limits on major decision-making, if any:

There are no reasons to limit major decision-making.

6. Dispute Resolution

Important! After this parenting plan is signed by a judge or commissioner, if you and the other parent disagree about shared decisions or what parts of this plan mean, the court may require you to use a dispute resolution provider before going back to court. The court may only require a dispute resolution provider if there are no limitations in 3.a. above. If a dispute resolution provider is checked below, the parents may, and sometimes must, use this provider before filing a Petition to Change a Parenting Plan or a Motion for Contempt for not following the plan. Check your county's Local Court Rules.

a. The parents will go to court (without having to go to mediation, arbitration, or counseling).

7. Custodian

The custodian is Jennifer Runov solely for the purpose of all state and federal statutes which require a designation of determination of custody. Even though one parent is called the custodian, this does not change the parenting rights and responsibilities described in

1 this plan.

2 (Washington law generally refers to parenting time and decision-making, rather than custody. However, some
3 state and federal laws require that one person be named the custodian. The custodian is the person with
4 whom the children are scheduled to reside a majority of their time.)

5 Parenting Time Schedule (Residential Provisions)

6 Complete the parenting time schedule in sections 8 – 11.

7 8. School Schedule

8 a. Children under school-age

9 The schedule for children under school-age is the same as for school-age children.

10 The children are scheduled to live with Jennifer except when they are scheduled to live
11 with Andrey on:

12 Every weekend beginning Friday at 6:00 p.m. to Sunday at 6:00 p.m.

13 9. Summer Schedule

14 Summer begins and ends according to the school calendar.

15 The Summer Schedule is the same as the School Schedule except that each parent shall 16 spend 2 weeks of uninterrupted vacation time with the children each summer. The parents
17 shall confirm their vacation schedules in writing by the end of May each year. (Skip to 10.)

18 10. Holiday Schedule (includes school breaks and special occasions)

19 The children are scheduled to spend holidays, school breaks, and special occasions as 20 follows:

21 Spring Break – Begins at release of school and ends day before school
22 recommences at 6:00 p.m.

23 Odd years with Andrey Runov; Even years with the other parent

24 Mother's Day – Begins and ends: 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

Every year with Jennifer Runov

Memorial Day – Begins and ends: ending 6:00 p.m.

With the parent who has the children for the attached weekend

Father's Day – Begins and ends: 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

Every year with Andrey Runov

Fourth of July – Begins and ends: July 4 at 10:00 a.m. to July

Odd years with Jennifer Runov; Even years with the other parent

Labor Day – Begins and ends: ending 6:00 p.m.

With the parent who has the children for the attached weekend

Thanksgiving Day / Break – Begins and ends: day prior to holiday at 6:00 p.m. to day after holiday at 10:00 a.m.

Christmas Eve / Day – Begins and ends:

Other plan: In odd years, Mother shall have Christmas Eve from 10:00 a.m. to Christmas Day at 10:00 a.m.. Father shall have Christmas Day from 10:00 a.m. to the day after Christmas Day until 10:00 a.m. In even years, the schedule will switch so that Father has Christmas Even and Mother has Christmas Day

New Year's Eve / Day – Begins and ends: December 31 at 6:00 p.m. to January 1st at 6:00 p.m.

Odd years with Andrey Runov; Even years with the other parent

All three-day weekends not listed elsewhere

The children shall spend any unspecified holiday or non-school day with the parent who has them for the attached weekend.

Important! Families in Washington observe a broad range of religions and traditions. Your Parenting Plan can provide for how children will spend time on other significant days. (Examples: Eid, Passover, Easter, Chinese New Year, birthdays, etc.) Add lines as needed.

11. Conflicts in Scheduling

The Holiday Schedule must be observed over all other schedules. If there are conflicts within the Holiday Schedule:

Named holidays shall be followed before school breaks.

12. Transportation Arrangements

The children will be exchanged for parenting time (picked up and dropped off) at school or daycare, when in session.

Other location: If school is not in session, parents shall exchange at each parent's home

Who is responsible for arranging transportation?

The picking up parent - The parent who is about to start parenting time with the children must arrange to have the children picked up.

13. Moving with the Children (Relocation)

Anyone with majority or substantially equal residential time (at least 45 percent) who wants to move with the children must notify every other person who has court-ordered time with the children.

Move to a different school district

If the move is to a different school district, the relocating person must complete the form Notice of Intent to Move with Children (FL Relocate 701) and deliver it at least 60 days before the intended move.

Exceptions:

- If the relocating person could not reasonably have known enough information to complete the form in time to give 60 days' notice, s/he must give notice within five days after learning the information.
- If the relocating person is relocating to a domestic violence shelter or moving to avoid a clear, immediate, and unreasonable risk to health or safety, notice may be delayed 21 days.
- If information is protected under a court order or the address confidentiality program, it may be withheld from the notice.
- A relocating person who believes that giving notice would put her/himself or a child at unreasonable risk of harm, may ask the court for permission to leave things out of the notice or to be allowed to move without giving notice. Use form Motion to Limit Notice of Intent to Move with Children (Ex Parte) (FL Relocate 702).

The Notice of Intent to Move with Children can be delivered by having someone personally serve the other party or by any form of mail that requires a return receipt.

If the relocating person wants to change the Parenting Plan because of the move, s/he must deliver a proposed Parenting Plan together with the Notice.

Move within the same school district

If the move is within the same school district, the relocating person still has to let the other parent know. However, the notice does not have to be served personally or by mail with a return receipt. Notice to the other party can be made in any reasonable way. No specific form is required.

Warning! If you do not notify...

A relocating person who does not give the required notice may be found in contempt of court. If that happens, the court can impose sanctions. Sanctions can include requiring the relocating person to bring the children back if the move has already happened, and ordering the relocating person to pay the other side's costs and lawyer's fees.

Right to object

A person who has court-ordered time with the children can object to a move to a different school district and/or to the relocating person's proposed Parenting Plan. If the move is within the same school district, the other party doesn't have the right to object to the move but s/he may ask to change the Parenting Plan if there are adequate reasons under the modification law (RCW 26.09.260).

An objection is made by filing the Objection about Moving with children and Petition about Changing a Parenting/Custody Order (Relocation) (form FL Relocate 721). File your Objection with the court and serve a copy on the relocating person and anyone else who has court-ordered time with the children. Service of the Objection must be by personal service or by mailing a copy to each person by any form of mail that requires a return receipt. The Objection must be filed and served no later than 30 days after the Notice of intent to Move with Children was received.

Right to move

During the 30 days after the Notice was served, the relocating person may not move to a different school district with the children unless s/he has a court order allowing the move.

After the 30 days, if no Objection is filed, the relocating person may move with the children without getting a court order allowing the move.

After the 30 days, if an Objection has been filed, the relocating person may move with the children pending the final hearing on the Objection unless:

- The other party gets a court order saying the children cannot move, or
- The other party has scheduled a hearing to take place no more than 15 days after the date the Objection was served on the relocating person. (However, the relocating person may ask the court for an order allowing the move even though a hearing is pending if the relocating person believes that s/he or a child is at unreasonable risk of harm.)
- the court may make a different decision about the move at a final hearing on the Objection.

Parenting Plan after move

If the relocating person served a proposed Parenting Plan with the Notice, and if no Objection is filed within 30 days after the Notice was served (or if the parties agree):

- Both parties may follow that proposed plan without being held in contempt of the Parenting Plan that was in place before the move. However, the proposed plan cannot be enforced by contempt unless it has been approved by a court.
- Either party may ask the court to approve the proposed plan. Use form Ex Parte Motion for Final Order Changing Parenting Plan – No Objection to Moving with

SUPERIOR COURT OF WASHINGTON, COUNTY OF CLARK

I am the Petitioner and make this declaration in response to Respondent's Motion for Temporary Family Law Order.

BACKGROUND: I am 37 years old. The Respondent is 34 years old. Respondent and I were married on April 9, 2009 and separated around June 21, 2021. We have three children together: Daniel Runov, age 10; Alina Runov, age 8 and Isabella Runov, age 3. I have a child from a previous relationship; Elijah, age 15. Respondent has two children from another relationship, Nick Baturin age 13 and Andrey Ryalka age 16. I work for a construction company, Boxwell Design and Build and started at this job on October 22, 2021. I make $30.00 per hour and work full-time, Monday to Friday, 8:00 a.m. until 4 or 5:00 p.m. Prior to this job, I worked for Havilah Retreat Center as a groundskeeper/construction worker. My family and I lived on site in a house which we rented for $1,000.00 per month.

1     RESPONDENT'S INVOLVEMENT IN RELIGIOUS CULT ; During the past year and a half my 2     wife got involved in an anti-government/religious group called the Nationals, which she is an
3     active member of as far as I am aware. See certificate of citizenship attached hereto as Exhibit
4     A and Assembly Record as Exhibit B. They are a group of individuals who believe conspiracies
5     such as: the Declaration of Independence is a fake, and that federal and state laws do not apply
6     to them because the government we have is not "real." They do not believe in our government
7     and have their own currency. See Exhibit C, currency; see Writ of Attachment as Exhibit D. I
8     worked hard to provide for our family but found out she donated money frequently to this group
9     while I was the sole provider. While I understand both of us have the right to bring our children
10    up in any religion, the teachings of this group is dangerous and harmful to our children.
11    Additional information about this group and the cult leader, Keith Edward Livingway can be 12    found online at: <https://reignbulletin.org/notice/livingway-keith-edward-name-holder/> Her 13    involvement in the group caused her to spend large amount of time online, while our kids were 14    left to take care of each other. This led to instances where our children would leave the house, 15    be left unattended, skipped meals, and caused property damage. For example, in August of 16    2021, I received a call from my brother-in-law Slavic Ivan(?) stating the pool liner outside the 17    property where Respondent and the children were staying had been punctured and that the 18    children were not being looked after. There are many examples like this. Respondent and I
19    came to a decision to homeschool our kids, but due to her excessive involvement in Nationals
20    online community their education has suffered. I do not believe they are at grade level by state 21    standards. Because most of the interactions the Respondent had with the religious cult were 22    through Zoom, I would sometimes overhear their exchanges which were full of cuss words and 23    homophobic remarks. I spoke to the Respondent about the impact that could have on our kids
24    as they spent all their time in her care while I was at work. It got to the point where I felt

1 Respondent was being brain-washed by this group, and in mid-June of 2021 I asked the 2 Respondent to make a choice between our family and the group. She said she chooses the 3 group, took our children, and left to stay with our friends.

4 While at our friends' house, she texted to ask if I would move our RV trailer to the land
5 we jointly own located at 382 Oyster Rd Toledo, WA so she could stay there with our children.
6 The RV had no shower, nor any other amenities for them to stay there. I offered to move out
7 into the RV instead. During that time, I continued to pay for rent and the land. By July of 2021,
8 the situation became worse. Respondent started talking about going to Pennsylvania for three 9 months. That is where the Nationalists group is located. She then said that she might go there 10 for six months. Then it turned into a year. The Respondent would say that someone there would 11 provide her with free housing. The Respondent also said that our children would go with her.

12 During all this Respondent refused to provide me with any information as to the kids 13 including where they were, where she was planning to take our children, refused to provide any 14 addresses of where they were staying, or who she was living with. Due to the fact I had to move
15 out, my marriage was failing, uncertainty about the children, and severe emotional distress, I 16 only worked 37 hours in the month of July. The Respondent was set on moving away with our 17 children, and she verbally informed the management of Havilah Retreat Center about her intent
18 to vacate the property by August 31, 2021. I did not want a divorce and waited for two months 19 before filing for legal separation in hopes that my wife would change her mind. I filed for legal 20 separation on August 30, 2021, to prevent Respondent from leaving the state of Washington
21 with our children, because I feared I would never see them again. She has since indicated in her 22 Response she wants a divorce.

23 The Respondent moved out from the property we rented at Havilah Retreat Center and 24 would not tell me where she and our children went. When asked, Respondent told me "It's none

1 of your fucking business." I did not know where our children were until September 15th, 2021
2 when they were brought to AWANA program at church by a friend named Taylor. I realized then
3 that the Respondent had moved in with her at 8509 NE 135th Court Vancouver WA, 98682.
4 Since then, I saw our children maybe 4 or 5 times, because Respondent refuses to allow me to 5 pick them up more often.

6 RESTRAINING ORDER: There have been no incidences between Respondent and I in the last
7 twelve years and Respondent does not mention dates in her allegations for this exact reason. I
8 will be the first to admit I was made some mistakes years ago, however for Respondent to claim 9 I have recently abused her in any shape or form would be a lie. Twelve years ago I was a 10 different person and due to excessive drinking and I did have run-ins with the law. During this 11 occasion twelve years I came home intoxicated the Respondent said she was afraid of me, and 12 I, in my intoxicated state, handed her a gun, saying that if she is afraid of me, here is a gun she 13 can shoot me with. After I fell asleep, The Respondent called the police. I was arrested for a 14 warrant violation, vehicular assault (an old charge for which the warrant was issued), and a 15 domestic violence charge. To my knowledge, I pled guilty to all charges and the whole ordeal
16 was a real wake up call for me; I stopped drinking to excess and I learned in anger management
17 how to defuse escalating situations. Since then, I have not had any run-ins with the law, and for 18 the last 12 years I have been working to provide for my entire family. Respondent has been 19 abusive to me on several occasions. In summer of 2019 Respondent punched me in the head
20 hard enough that I fell. Another time in 2019, Respondent shattered the T.V. in master bedroom
21 of our house. Prior to this, she shattered three other T.V.'s in our house. I was never violent 22 during these incidents. I have also provided the court with declarations of third parties. Please see 23 Declaration of Chris Bowell, Andre Ryalls, and James McVicker filed herewith.

24 During our marriage I am aware of one instance when Respondent had voluntarily

1 admitted herself to a psychiatric facility, which was on July 4, 2019. On this day, Respondent
2 indicated that she would like to go to downtown to watch the fireworks. However, we already 3 purchased fireworks to celebrate. We argued and Respondent repeatedly launched herself at 4 me, at which point I chose to remove myself from the premises to let her cool down. When I
5 came home some time after, Respondent was not inside, and our children were home alone.
6 After several hours passed and because Respondent did not return home, I called the police to 7 report her missing. They were able to locate her at Mark T. Lehner, OT PeachHealth Downtown
8 Urgent Care where she admitted herself. The kids and I visited the Respondent while she was 9 in the facility for a week, until she discharged herself. Due to doctor patient confidentiality, I do
10 not know the reason Respondent admitted herself but she stated she was suicidal at some 11 point. After our separation, our conversations were mostly about me asking to see our children, 12 which she has denied me, and about financial decisions. Our marriage did not fall apart
13 because of abuse on my part. Our marriage fell apart because the Respondent no longer wants 14 to be married to me and wishes to move to another state to join a cult-like organization and take 15 our children with her. I love our children, and as their father, want to be a part of their lives. I 16 respectfully ask the court to deny the request for the restraining order as there is no basis for 17 one.

18 PARENTING PLAN: The children have never been afraid of me, this is simply inaccurate. We 19 were a happy family until the months leading up to our separation there were no incidences
20 between me and my kids, so I do not understand why they would be fearful of me now.
21 Respondent has completely shut me out and has not allowed me to see my children since our 22 separation despite me pleading to see the kids. She is set on starting a new life for herself and 23 shutting me out of our kids' lives in the process. While Respondent has been the primary
24 caretaker of the children while I worked to provide for the family, I have always been an active

1 and involved parent in their lives and her withholding the children from me is inappropriate and
2 is damaging my relationship with the children. The children are homeschooled by Respondent.
3 She did have a cleaning job on Mondays during the last month, and I would watch the children
4 during this time. Because Respondent is with the children all day and given the fact I work
5 Monday to Friday 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., I ask the court to award me visitation every weekend from 6 Friday at 6:00 p.m. to Sunday at 6:00 p.m. Respondent spends all day with them and this would 7 be the only time I can spend with them. I request the Court adopt my Proposed Parenting Plan.
8 Respondent did not file her own Proposed Parenting Plan.

9 INCOME AND SUPPORT: I request that I be ordered to pay child support according to the 10 Washington State Child Support Schedule and that we split pro rata uninsured medical costs. I
11 make $30.00 per hour and work 32-40 hours per week, so I ask the Court to impute me at 40
12 hours per week, or $5,200 gross per month. I changed jobs recently but still work in the same
13 field. Since it made no sense for me to continue living in the RV, I have temporarily moved in with 14 my parents and stay there during the weekends. During the week, I live at the job site that I 15 renovate. My new job is only 30 minutes away from Respondent and allows me to be closer to 16 the kids. Because I recently started this job, I only have one paystub, which I have provided 17 along with a letter from my new employer detailing my start date, rate of pay, and hours I will be 18 working on average. Please see financial documents filed under seal. As reflected in my 19 Financial Declaration, my current expenses total $3,781. I do not know if Respondent still has 20 her cleaning job and I do not know how much she makes. I request her income be imputed also 21 at minimum wage at 40 hours per week, or $2,372 gross per month. This is close to 22 Respondent's proposed income for child support purposes. I believe Respondent receives some 23 child support for her other child but I am not certain. I did pay Respondent $800.00 voluntarily
24 on 8-12-2021 for child support. Please see proof of payment/stub attached hereto as Exhibit F.

1 Respondent also receives the child tax credit and I believe she receives $1,250 per month. I
2 request this be included as income if the court orders she continue to receive 100% of the 3 credit. The kids have state medical insurance currently. With regards to taxes, Respondent has 4 two children from a prior relationship and I have one. She also does not have a job to my 5 knowledge so she would not benefit from the tax exemption. I request I be able to claim all three 6 of our children in 2022 and that we reserve beyond that.

7 SPOUSAL MAINTENANCE AND PAYMENT OF DEBTS: Respondent is in need of spousal
8 support as she has not historically worked. She is currently living with her friend and I do not 9 know if she pays any rent or has contributed to expenses. My net monthly income is $4,242.57.
10 If the court adopts my proposed child support worksheets, I will be paying $$1,310.26 for child 11 support, which leaves me only with $2,932 to pay all my living expenses and the land loan we 12 have. My monthly expenses total $3,781.00 which currently includes the $1,000.00 monthly 13 payment for the land we own. In lieu of spousal support, I request I continue to make the 14 payment on our shared debts and the monthly payment on land and the line of credit debt we 15 have ($80.00 minimum per month). We did not have any other credit cards during the marriage.
16 We should each be responsible for any debts acquired after separation. After payment of child
17 support, my reasonable monthly expenses, the land loan, and the line of credit, I will have no
18 funds remaining. I know Respondent has the need for support and I am not disputing that, but I 19 do not have the ability to pay her.

20 TEMPORARY USE OF PROPERTY: I request that I be awarded exclusive use trailer on the 21 land currently, the tractor we own, and have regular access to the land as I need to be able to 22 maintain it as I have been regularly doing so since we bought it in November of 2020.
23 Respondent has her own vehicle and I am driving a truck from my brother-in-law which we 24 agreed in June of 2021 I would trade him for a project car I have been working on. The project

Declaration of: Chris Boxwell

1. I am 47 years old and I am the Petitioner's employer.
2. I declare as follows: My name is Chris Boxwell. I first met Andrey about six years ago when he started working for my company, Boxwell Design Build. Soon after he was hired, we developed a friendship outside of work. During my relationship with Andrey, I have known him to be someone who shows up on time, works hard, and carries himself in a polite, respectable manner.

In addition to being an exemplary employee, Andrey is a family man who has always presented himself with levelheadedness and grace. I have a rental house on my property that Andrey and his family rented for a year. This gave me the opportunity to see Andrey interact with his children on an almost daily basis. Andrey's top priority was always to make his wife and kids happy. Andrey did whatever it took to provide for his family to ensure their needs were taken care of. He cleaned the house, cooked for his family, and loved them. When his wife decided to get involved in an online cult, she abruptly left Andrey and I saw that it killed him inside. All he wanted to do was make it work. However, his wife has other plans and Andrey respected that. All he wants now is assurance that he will be able to see his kids and be involved in their lives. I have never seen Andrey use drugs, raise a hand on his family, or anything else that would cause concern. Any accusations of such behavior are false. In fact, Andrey seems to always be the levelheaded one in the family.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the state of Washington that the facts I have provided on this form (and any attachments) are true.

2. I declare as follows: My name is James Robert McVicker. I first met Andrey about four years ago and he has been a family friend since then. Andrey and I both shared a passion for cars we both helped each other with projects on our cars. He often times let me use his garage and tools to work on my cars.
About three years ago, I went to the Runov's house at 6912 NE 28th Circle, Vancouver WA 98662 to help Andrey with a project on a car. Jennifer had been keeping to herself in the house. Suddenly and completely without provocation, Jennifer entered the garage and punched Andrey in the shoulder. She then grabbed his jacket and threw him to the ground. Jennifer, she grabbed a shot glass and threw it to the ground right next to his head. It shattered upon impact and covered the ground with broken glass. Andrey and I both froze as she then calmly walked back into the house and closed the door behind her. She did not say she was upset at him, she did not yell at him. From what I could tell, the only reason she left the house was to assault Andrey and there was absolutely no reason for such aggression. I was shocked to see Jennifer use such physical force against Andrey while he had done nothing to provoke her. Andrey stood up after she left and he was physically hurt and shaken. We stood in silence for a minute trying to process what had just happened. We both promptly left the residence because we felt that was necessary at that time.

Declaration of: Elijah Runov

1. I am 15 years old and I am the Petitioner's son.
2. I declare as follows: My name is Elijah Runov. Andrey Runov is my father and Jennifer Runov is my step mother. I never lived with Jennifer and my dad full time but I would visit often when I had breaks from school. It was enough for me to notice when tension arose in the relationship. I could tell finances were tight and I knew my dad was trying very hard to provide for his family. For example, my dad sold one of his cars to help support the family. My father and Jennifer argued but my dad would always leave the house and come back when the situation calmed down. I have never seen my dad be physically abusive towards Jennifer or any of the kids, nor have I seen any drug use or excessive alcohol use.

We moved in a mobile home and the family really started to fall apart at that point. Jennifer placed all her time on calls with a group called the "Nationals." During that time, my dad was constantly working to provide for the family. He worked six days a week and only took a break on Sunday for church. This made it difficult to spend time with my father while I was there. I have heard of Jennifer's plan to move the kids to Pennsylvania to be closer to the "Nationals" and I do not believe this is what the kids want or what would be in their best interest. I have heard my dad ask them many times if they want to move to Pennsylvania and they always say no. My father wants to make sure we can stay active in his kids lives and he does not want them to move to Pennsylvania.

Declaration of: Andrey Ryalls

1. I am 17 years old and I am the oldest son of Jennifer Ryalls (Runov) and stepson of Andrey Runov.
2. I declare as follows: My name is Andre Ryalls. I am astonished to see this family tear apart. I am truly thankful and grateful to both my mother and stepfather. I knew from the beginning Andrey was not my biological father, but I accepted him as my father not only because he took care of me but because he treated me as if I was his biological child. Andrey sacrificed a lot of himself and his hobbies for his family. He worked hard to pay off his financial debts and my mother's debts as well. Neither I nor any of my siblings experienced any type of abuse from Andrey. We were comfortable with him and trust him and I cannot conceive my step siblings being in any danger. He is a great father.

My mother use to be very involved in our lives. She use to take care of us and the house while Andrey worked hard to provide. She would cook, clean and play with the kids. That all changed when she joined an online religious/political group and over time, she started neglecting some of her motherly duties so that she could spend more time online talking with the other people in the group. She would leave the kids completely unattended and at times, unfed for hours. This understandably upset my stepdad and I could see it really took a toll on their relationship. I witnessed them fight at times and eventually she moved out and started living with a family friend. She assigned some of her work duties to me, like cleaning around the building, so that she could spend more time online with her group. One day, I found out about my mother's plan to take the children to live with her group in Pennsylvania. I have heard from multiple people that the kids do not want to leave with her. I love my mother, but her actions and decisions have hurt me, the kids, and I can see how much it hurts Andrey. I am happy to provide additional information if needed.

Affidavit of Fact

Rebuttal to Declaration of Petitioner in Response to Respondent
Motion for Temporary Family Law Order
Case Number 21-3-01443-06
Reference: Temporary Family Law Order

Date: 6th day of December in the year 2021

Comes now Jennifer Lyn Runov, Trustee (hereinafter "Affiant") being competent to testify and being over the age of twenty-one years, after first being duly affirmed according to tell the truth to the facts related herein states that Affiant has first-hand knowledge and belief that these facts are true to the best of Affiant's knowledge and belief, and;

This is a response to Declaration of Petitioner in Response to Respondent Motion for Temporary Family Law Order filed on the 1st day of December 2021 for case no. 21-3-01443-06 in Clark County of the State of Washington.

1: In response to page number 2 of 8, line 2

Response: Affiant is not involved in any anti-government religious group called the "Nationals" or ANY anti-government religious group in general.

2: In response to page 2 of 8, line 2, 4

Response: The reign of the heaven's society Temple are followers of the Way, the Truth and the Life and does not speak out against any form of government nor is it a religious cult. The certificate of citizenship shown by Andrey as exhibit A is honorary for turning to Jesus.

3: In response to page 2 of 8, line 4, 5, 6

Response: Affiant has never heard anyone speak out about the Declaration of Independence as being a fake but in fact speak about the importance of the document. The assembly record shown by Andrey as exhibit B is a Union document. The Union itself focusses on establishing businesses within The United States of America.

1 of 8

Andrey doesn't have any idea what anyone else believes nor does Andrey have the right to say what someone does or does not believe. Affiant has never heard anyone say that the Federal and State laws do not apply to them. The Union and its members hold government in high regards as law is important to maintain a civil society.

4: In response to page 2 of 8 line 7

Response: It is perfectly legal for anyone to issue their own currency. Just because you issue your own currency does not mean that you are an anti-government religious cult involved in nefarious actions. Here are a few references on the open web of how to set up your own currency and others that have accomplished it.

<https://www.cnn.com/2014/08/01/business/making-money-start-your-own-currency/index.html>

<https://theecologist.org/2010/jun/08/10-steps-creating-your-own-local-currency>

<https://www.theatlantic.com/business/archive/2011/04/how-to-start-your-own-private-currency/73327/>

Writ of Attachment shown by Andrey as exhibit D has nothing to do with the other claims from Andrey which Andrey is showing a continued habit of lumping all unknowns in Andrey's own mind as an anti-government religious cult.

5: In response to page 2 of 8 line 8, 9

Response: There was one donation made to the Union whereas Andrey was in agreement with in making said donation as a replacement to Andrey's and Affiant's normal tithing to the local church.

6: In response to page 2 of 8 line 9, 10, 11, 12

Response: It is slander to call someone a cult leader who has never been tried, convicted or accused of being a cult leader. Andrey has spoken to Keith Edward Livingway once maybe twice during Temple in which one of those instances Andrey was drunk. There were multiple witnesses to this interaction and Andrey's obvious intoxication. Please see exhibit 1 for witness statement.

There is no danger in teaching others of The Way, The Truth and The Life that is in Jesus and it is unfortunate that Andrey has that opinion.

In addition to the illegitimate claim of Keith Edward Livingway being a cult leader, the link Andrey had provided on line 12 of Andrey's Declaration has nothing to do with Temple nor Affiant but is Keith's own business. Which shows again Andrey's habit of lumping together all areas of people's life and mixing up facts.

7: In response to page 2 of 8 line 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18

Response: The children have never been left unattended, left hungry or been allowed the ability to freely roam the rental property. The children have never been accused of puncturing a pool or causing property damage but were asked if they knew what happened. For context, the Affiant and children were renting on a retreat center property where events full of children were held nearly daily. Affiant's children were not allowed outside while said camps were at the facility. Any one of the camps that were renting the facility could have been the cause of damage.

The time spent online was in creating a business to help support the kids. See homemadehome.shop a website and business Affiant has created this past year. Anyone who has worked towards starting a business knows the time it takes in learning different aspects of starting one up.

8: In response to page 2 of 8 line 18, 19, 20, 21

Response: Andrey has never been involved in any of the children's home-schooling education nor does Andrey have any idea what the grade level by state standards would be. Andrey completely relied on Affiant to teach the children. Andrey has no idea whether their education was or is suffering because of Andrey's lack of involvement. When in fact, the kids are excelling in nearly all subjects and in some subjects above grade level according to state standards.

9: In response to page 2 of 8 line 21,22, 23, 24

Response: Temple members have never spoken of Andrey's sexual orientation or intended to offend Andrey's sexual orientation at any time. No one in Temple is involved in cursing wherein the Temple members do not practice witchery nor demon worship.

10: In response to page 3 of 8 line 1

Response: Affiant has never been diagnosed as brainwashed by any psychiatric professional.

11: In response to page 3 of 8 line 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7

Response: In mid-June of 2021 Andrey threw all of Affiant's belongings on the floor in the living room telling Affiant to "get the fuck out or I will throw you out". Wherein Affiant then gathered Affiant's and children's belongings and left to a friend's house, as Andrey's aggression was escalating. Pastor Jeff witnessed the event on the phone. After Andrey threw Affiant and children out of the house, Affiant asked Andrey to move joint owned RV out to the jointly owned property in preparation to hook up RV to services. Not with the intentions to move children into a situation with no services but to look for housing options as Affiant and children were without a home.

12: In response to page 3 of 8 line 7, 8, 9, 10, 11

Response: In regards to the move to Pennsylvania, Affiant was offered a job in residential maintenance in exchange for housing. Affiant and children would have lived there by themselves in exchange for maintaining the rental house. There is no group home nor any cult that Affiant is a member of.

Affiant is unaware of any "Nationalist" group nor is Affiant affiliated with any Nationalist group. And further any false accusations of being a part of said group is attempted murder because those groups are classified as terrorist organizations by the Democratic Party.

13: In response to page 3 of 8 line 12, 13, 14

Response: Affiant had no intentions of keeping the children from Andrey. Please refer to the original affidavit as to why sharing of location was an issue at the time. There was talk between Affiant and Andrey about arranging meeting locations to visit with children. Since June of 2021 Andrey has asked to see the children 4 times total and each time Affiant worked with Andrey to make a scheduled visitation. Please see exhibit 2 for original Affidavit.

14: In response to page 3 of 8 line 16, 17, 18

The move out of Havilah Retreat center was a written request from the owner due to the fact that Andrey decided to stop working. The agreement to live at said location was that Andrey was the grounds keeper of the property. Andrey stopped showing up to work with no notice. This led to Affiant needing to figure out housing for Affiant and children. Please see exhibit 3 for breach of contract notice.

15: In response to page 4 of 8 line 1, 2, 3, 4, 5

Response: Affiant has not withheld children from Andrey at any time and Andrey did know where Affiant and children were staying after Affiant was served. Affiant has witnesses to the interactions between Andrey and Affiant regarding visitation with the children. The children have expressed a huge opposition to visiting Andrey and would start to cry when asked if they wanted to go. Affiant also has a recording of asking the children if they wanted to go and the resulting reaction. Please see exhibit 4 for a witness statement.

16: In response to page 4 of 8 line 6, 7, 8, 9, 10

Response: Andrey and Affiant have only been married for 12 years. Domestic Violence incident Andrey received was in the Fall of 2010 making Andreys claim of a clean record of 12 years already dirty. Since Andreys release from jail and immigration detention center in the spring of 2012 the only thing that changed was Andreys cleverness at hiding Andreys abusive tendencies and alcoholic addiction. See Original affidavit as to how many fines paid and jail time during relationship between Andrey and Affiant. Also refer back to Andreys own witness statement Robert James McVicker wherein witness states Affiant went into to the garage picked up a shot glass and threw it. Unusual for sober, clean people to hang out in a garage with shot glasses. Also see Exhibit 1 witness statement for further evidence. Let Andreys criminal record show as proof to the lies of Andreys claims of being clean and abiding in the law. Andrey has records in Clark County, Skamania County, Multnomah County and Tillamook County. There are other counties as well, Unfortunately Andrey took all of Affiants records in July of 2021.

17: In response to page 4 of 8 line 18, 19, 20

Response: Affiant has not punched petitioner in the head to the point of falling.

18: In response to page 4 of 8 line 20, 21, 22

Response: the TV smashing was due to the excessive pornography watching by Andrey. Respondent did not want children being exposed to the excessive pornography. Andrey was consistently asked to stop watching pornography as it affected everyone in the house.

19: In response to page 5 of 8 line 1,2, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11

Response: Affiant was pushed by Andrey to a point of wanting to end Affiants own life due to physical abuse and to excessive daily mental abuse by Andrey. July 4th 2019 Affiant needed help and signed up as a voluntary patient. That day Affiant did not leave the children unattended.

The result of being a voluntary patient was a positive experience wherein that was the time that Affiant needed to begin the process of leaving Andrey. That was the time when Affiant decided the marriage was irreconcilable. Affiant never told Andrey about that decision for safety reasons. Two years of praying to our Father in Heaven through Jesus provided Affiant and children the opportunity to safely escape.

When Andrey motioned a court order to keep Affiant and children in the State of Washington, the motion was a complete lie as to the reasons behind it. When in fact the motion was made to prevent Affiant from escaping Andrey and his abuse, see page 3 line 19 and 20 on Andreys Declaration and Exhibit 2 original Affidavit. Andrey was simply using the courts to force Affiant back into the home so Andrey could continue to abuse Affiant. Affiant learned about abusers while a voluntary patient.

20: In response to page 5 of 8 line 11,12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17

Response: Andrey has never been denied the ability to see the children and 95% of Andreys texts where about how Affiant was supposedly being condemned to hell while Andrey sat next to God clothed in his own righteousness, while repeating "God Knows" in a cult like manner. Please see exhibit 2.

Andrey does not want to face the fact that it was by Andreys actions the marriage failed and it was not a mystical cult that is to blame. Affiant did not have any online friends at the time that the marriage was over back in July of 2019.

Response: Andrey has seen the children since Aug 31st as Andrey even states it on page 4 line 4 of Andreys Declaration of Petitioner in Response to Respondents Motion for Temporary Family Law Order.

Affiant has a recording and witnesses to the distress the children undergo when asked if they would like to visit Andrey. Affiant cannot damage a relationship that was never there. Please see exhibit 4 for witness statement.

22: In response to page 6 line 8

Response: Affiant filed Parenting Plan on October 5th 2021 with the Clark County clerk.

23: In response to page 6 line 14, 15, 16

Andrey is claiming to reside 30 min from Affiants current forced location, yet Andrey, his coworker and Chris (Andreys boss) all signed their witness documents and declaration in Sisters, OR three and a half hours away. Basically, Affiant is unable to move to find work but Andrey is able to move to find work and neglect supporting Andreys children. Common behavior of Andrey with a lack of responsibility.

24: In response to page 7 line 1, 2

Response: Affiant does not receive the full amount of temporary child tax credit. The amount is split in half as per stated by the IRS due to a request by Affiant to receive Affiant's portion directly. This was due to the fact that Andrey was claiming it as Andreys payment for child support.

25: In response to page 7 line 7, 8

Affiant has "historically" worked and in fact Affiant was the sole bread winner the first 5 years of Affiant and Andreys relationship, a year of which Andrey was incarcerated while Affiant was left to care for 3 kids alone, one of which was a newborn.

26: In response to page 7 line 12, 13, 14

Andrey is not paying the monthly land payment and has not for the past 2 months. Please see exhibit 5 Default of Loan payment statement.

27: In response to page 7 line 20, 21, 22, 23

Response: Andrey is not taking care of property when in fact a recent visit has shown the neglected state that it is in. Please see attached exhibit 6.

28: In response to the four witness statements Andrey provided with Andreys Declaration.

Two of the witness's statements were from minors both of which sound like they were coerced.

James McVicker one of the other witnesses was a common guest of Andreys whom the two of them would drink and party a lot.

Affiant objects to Chris Boxwell's statement. Affiant and children have never lived in Sisters, OR but simply visited it as Andrey was doing jobs there with Chris. Furthermore, Chris is also a heavy drinker whom Andrey would drink often with. Chris has seen Andrey with Affiant and children less than a handful of times. Simply not enough to have a view point of a good standing marriage.

The Entities named within this Affidavit of Fact who the Affiant has claimed false accusations from has (10) days from the publication of Public Notice to give rebuttal or these claims stand as fact.

Affiant affirms that all that is stated within this Affidavit is hereby true and correct in Yahushua/Jesus name.

Further Affiant sayeth naught Signed on this 0th day of December in the 2021st year of the new covenant in Yahushua's/Jesus name (12/6/2021)

Witnesses to Andrey on Temple Meetings

Date: December 4th 2021

On or around March of 2021 we were in our regularly scheduled Temple zoom meeting. Jennifer Runov was on the meeting along with about 10 others. Towards the end of the meeting Andrey Runov joined the meeting. He was very obviously intoxicated and began to mock what we were going over. His demeanor on the call was as though he was in a higher position and in a sense better than everyone else on the call. All of his words were slurred and it was unclear as to what he was trying to convey other than the use of vulgar language. Andrey came in to the meeting with what appeared to be intentions to insult everyone for their faith, mock the people in the meeting and in general cause disruption. We could tell how uneasy this had made Jennifer Runov. After about 20 min into Andrey joining the meeting Jennifer and Andrey got off of the call. It did not sound like a good situation. There were at least two occasions similar to this one, I am witness to Andrey Runov belligerent behavior.

Best Regards,

William James Wright V

Witness Statement

December 3rd 2021

This is a testimony to the visitations and interactions that I have witnessed between Andrey and his children.

Jen and her children came to stay with us for a few days after they were told to vacate their house in Hivolia. At the time Andrey knew Jen and the kids were staying at our house because he asked to come by and see the kids. The kids and I were out front of the house playing. Andre said hi to the kids within a few minutes the rest of the time (about 20 minutes) he talked about how he was such a good dad, how he loves and misses his kids, and disparaged his wife Jen. I was surprised at how little time he spent with his children but professed at how much he loved and missed them. After he was done giving me his side of the story he said goodbye to the kids and left.

On September 5th 2021: Andrey came to get kids. The kids did not want to go with him; they were begging their mother to not have to go. Daniel was in tears about having to go and Alina tried to hide. Jen tried to get them to go. When Andre arrived Bella had pooped. While Jen was changing Bella's poopy diaper, Andre had to wait. When the kids were about to leave out the door, Andre whipped his truck around our cul de sac and raced out. All I could imagine is that he did not like to be made to wait.

On September 18th 2021: Andrey picked them up for the day on Sunday 10-6. He dropped them back at our house after church around 1:30 because he made plans to get his haircut. (He had indicated to them that he was going to take them to Skyzone to jump). They did not understand why he did not want to spend time with them.

On September 19th 2021: Andrey picked up kids at 10:30am and dropped them off at 3:30pm. Kids shared they went to church then Andrey had bought them and another family Popeyes.

Wednesday night is Awanas night at the church. Jen has been a teacher at Awanas for several years now. My daughter had her as a teacher last year. This year Jen took a break from being a teacher in hopes that Andrey would step up to teach. I have been taking My daughter and Jen's kids to Awanas and most of the time I stay at the request of the kids. This is the first time Andrey decided to volunteer at Awanas. The second or third time that Andre had been volunteering at Awana on this night on the ride home the kids told me that their father was not going to be taking them to skyzone anymore and he told them that is what their mother wanted. He gave them the sky zone pass. The kids were confused by what he had said. There are two things to note: 1. The skyzone pass had been canceled by Andre when the kids tried to use it recently, resulting in Jen having to continue the promise to the kids that Andrey had made. 2. He no longer volunteers at Awanas even though he claims that his work is only 30 minutes away. And Awanas is from 6:30-8:00pm every Wednesday.

On November 14th 2021: The last time the kids went to see their dad at his parent's house, their grandfather picked them up and brought them home. The kids showed us the gifts the grandparents had gotten them. When asked about their dad they said they only saw him for a few minutes at the end of the visit and he asked them what they had wanted for Christmas. (He misses them so much that at the visit on Sunday he only spends 15 to 20 minutes with them)

Ms. Runov,

Thank you for providing your email address. This will aid both parties in communicating effectively and promptly. I am waiting to receive the draft orders from the Division of Child Support and will then send over via email the draft orders which reflect the court's ruling from the hearing last week.

As you know, the court ordered visitation with Andrey every week beginning Friday at 6:00 p.m. to Sunday at 6:00 p.m. The picking up parent is to arrange transportation, which means Andrey will pick up the kids on Friday, and you will need to arrange transportation on Sunday. If Andrey does not have your address, please provide in writing to him or reply to this email. Let me know if you need his address. Please have the children ready this Friday. Exchanges should be curbside pick up, meaning you both will pull up at the curb.

Thank you,

b. Other problems that may harm the children's best interests:

Neither parent has any of these problems.

4. Limitations on a parent

Does not apply. There are no reasons for limitations checked in 3.a. or 3.b. above.

5. Decision-making

When the children are with you, you are responsible for them. You can make day-to-day decisions for the children when they are with you, including decisions about safety and emergency health care. Major decisions must be made as follows:

a. Who can make major decisions about the children?

Type of Major Decision	Joint (parents make these decisions together)	Limited (only the parent named below has authority to make these decisions)
School / Educational	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Health care (not emergency)	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

b. Reasons for limits on major decision-making, if any:

There are no reasons to limit major decision-making.

6. Dispute Resolution

Important! After this parenting plan is signed by a judge or commissioner, if you and the other parent disagree about shared decisions or what parts of this plan mean, the court may require you to use a dispute resolution provider before going back to court. The court may only require a dispute resolution provider if there are no limitations in 3.a. above. If a dispute resolution provider is checked below, the parents may, and sometimes must, use this provider before filing a Petition to Change a Parenting Plan or a Motion for Contempt for not following the plan. Check your county's Local Court Rules.

a. The parents will go to court (without having to go to mediation, arbitration, or counseling).

7. Custodian

The custodian is Jennifer Runov solely for the purpose of all state and federal statutes

1 which require a designation of determination of custody. Even though one parent is called 2 the custodian, this does not change the parenting rights and responsibilities described in 3 this plan.

4 (Washington law generally refers to parenting time and decision-making, rather than custody. However, some
5 state and federal laws require that one person be named the custodian. The custodian is the person with
6 whom the children are scheduled to reside a majority of their time.)

7 Parenting Time Schedule (Residential Provisions)

8 Complete the parenting time schedule in sections 8 – 11.

9 8. School Schedule

10 a. Children under school-age

11 The schedule for children under school-age is the same as for school-age children.

12 The children are scheduled to live with Jennifer except when they are scheduled to live
13 with Andrey on:

14 Beginning 12-17-2021:

16 not take the children to job sites/housing that is based away from his primary residence. In 17 the event Father must away for work during his parenting time, he shall first offer his 18 parenting time to Mother if she is available to care for the children. Father may resume his 19 parenting time upon return from work with notice to Mother but make up time shall not be 20 required.

21 9. Summer Schedule

22 Summer begins and ends according to the school calendar.

23 The Summer Schedule is the same as the School Schedule except that each parent shall 24 spend 2 weeks of uninterrupted vacation time with the children each summer. The parents shall confirm their vacation schedules in writing by the end of May each year. (Skip to 10.)

The Holiday Schedule must be observed over all other schedules. If there are conflicts within the Holiday Schedule:

Named holidays shall be followed before school breaks.

12. Transportation Arrangements

The children will be exchanged for parenting time (picked up and dropped off) at school or daycare, when in session. If school is not in session, parents shall exchange at each parent's home

Who is responsible for arranging transportation?

The picking up parent - The parent who is about to start parenting time with the children must arrange to have the children picked up.

13. Moving with the Children (Relocation)

Anyone with majority or substantially equal residential time (at least 45 percent) who wants to move with the children must notify every other person who has court-ordered time with the children.

Move to a different school district

If the move is to a different school district, the relocating person must complete the form Notice of Intent to Move with Children (FL Relocate 701) and deliver it at least 60 days before the intended move.

Exceptions:

- If the relocating person could not reasonably have known enough information to complete the form in time to give 60 days' notice, s/he must give notice within five days after learning the information.
- If the relocating person is relocating to a domestic violence shelter or moving to avoid a clear, immediate, and unreasonable risk to health or safety, notice may be delayed 21 days.
- If information is protected under a court order or the address confidentiality program, it may be withheld from the notice.
- A relocating person who believes that giving notice would put her/himself or a child at unreasonable risk of harm, may ask the court for permission to leave things out of the notice or to be allowed to move without giving notice. Use form Motion to Limit Notice of Intent to Move with Children (Ex Parte) (FL Relocate 702).

The Notice of Intent to Move with Children can be delivered by having someone personally serve the other party or by any form of mail that requires a return receipt.

If the relocating person wants to change the Parenting Plan because of the move, s/he must deliver a proposed Parenting Plan together with the Notice.

Move within the same school district

If the move is within the same school district, the relocating person still has to let the other parent know. However, the notice does not have to be served personally or by mail with a return receipt. Notice to the other party can be made in any reasonable way. No specific form is required.

Warning! If you do not notify...

A relocating person who does not give the required notice may be found in contempt of court. If that happens, the court can impose sanctions. Sanctions can include requiring the relocating person to bring the children back if the move has already happened, and ordering the relocating person to pay the other side's costs and lawyer's fees.

Right to object

A person who has court-ordered time with the children can object to a move to a different school district and/or to the relocating person's proposed Parenting Plan. If the move is within the same school district, the other party doesn't have the right to object to the move but s/he may ask to change the Parenting Plan if there are adequate reasons under the modification law (RCW 26.09.260).

An objection is made by filing the Objection about Moving with children and Petition about Changing a Parenting/Custody Order (Relocation) (form FL Relocate 721). File your Objection with the court and serve a copy on the relocating person and anyone else who has court-ordered time with the children. Service of the Objection must be by personal service or by mailing a copy to each person by any form of mail that requires a return receipt. The Objection must be filed and served no later than 30 days after the Notice of intent to Move with Children was received.

Right to move

During the 30 days after the Notice was served, the relocating person may not move to a different school district with the children unless s/he has a court order allowing the move.

After the 30 days, if no Objection is filed, the relocating person may move with the children without getting a court order allowing the move.

After the 30 days, if an Objection has been filed, the relocating person may move with the children pending the final hearing on the Objection unless:

- The other party gets a court order saying the children cannot move, or
- The other party has scheduled a hearing to take place no more than 15 days after the date the Objection was served on the relocating person. (However, the relocating person may ask the court for an order allowing the move even though a hearing is pending if the relocating person believes that s/he or a child is at unreasonable risk of harm.)
- the court may make a different decision about the move at a final hearing on the Objection.

10 Neither parent shall use illegal drugs, nor use alcohol to excess, while in the presence of the 11 children, nor immediately preceding residential time. Neither parent shall operate a motor 12 vehicle under the influence of intoxicants with the children present, nor shall they consume
13 alcoholic beverages in any on-or off-road vehicle while the children are passengers.

14 COOPERATION AND RESPECT:

15 Each parent agrees to exert every reasonable effort to maintain free access and unhampered 16 contact and communication between the child and the other parent, and to promote the 17 emotions of affection, love and respect between the child and the other parent.

18 Each parent agrees to refrain from words or conduct, and further agrees to discourage other
19 persons from uttering words or engaging in conduct, which would have a tendency to estrange
20 the child from the other parent, to damage the opinion of the child as to the other parent, or 21 which would impair the natural development of the child's love and respect for the other parent.

22 Each parent agrees to honor one another's parenting style, privacy and authority. Neither
23 parent shall interfere in the parenting style of the other nor shall either parent make plans or 24 arrangements that would impinge upon the other parent's authority or time with the children without the express agreement of the other. Each parent shall encourage the child to discuss his or her grievance against a parent directly with the other parent. It is the intent of both parents to encourage a direct parent child bond and communication.

Neither parent shall ask the child to make decisions or requests involving the residential schedule. Neither parent shall discuss the residential schedule with the children except for plans which have already been agreed upon by both parents.

Neither parent shall encourage the child to change their primary residence or encourage the child to believe it is their choice to do so. This is a choice to be made by the parents or, if they cannot agree, by the courts. Neither parent shall use the child, directly or indirectly, to gather information about the other parent.

Neither parent shall make derogatory comments about the other parent or allow anyone else to

1 8. Standard Calculation

Parent Name	Standard calculation Worksheets line 17
JENNIFER LYNN RUNOV	$757.00

6 9. Deviation from standard calculation

7 Should the monthly child support amount be different from the standard calculation?

- 8  No - The monthly child support amount ordered in section 10 is the same as the 9 standard calculation listed in section 8 because:
10  No one asked for a deviation from the standard calculation. (Skip to 10.)
11  There is no good reason to approve the deviation requested by

The facts supporting this decision are:
 the parent asking for a deviation:
 has a new spouse or domestic partner with income of $ _____ lives in a household where other adults have income of $ _____ other: _____

- 14  Yes - The monthly child support amount ordered in section 10 is different from the 15 standard calculation listed in section 8 because:
16  A parent or parents in this case has:
17  children from other relationships.
18  paid or received child support for children from other relationships.
19  A child in this case:
20  has extraordinary income.
21  has special needs because of disability.
22  has special medical, education, or psychological needs.
23  spends significant time with the parent who owes support. The non-standard 24 amount still gives the other parent's household enough money for the child's 25 basic needs. The child does not get public assistance (TANF).
 Other reasons: _____

The facts that support the reasons checked above are as follows:
_____

25 10. Monthly child support amount (transfer payment)

26 After considering the standard calculation in section 8 and whether or not to apply a 27 deviation in section 9, the Court orders the following monthly child support amount (transfer 28 payment).

ANDREY V. RUNOV must pay child support to JENNIFER LYNN RUNOV each month as follows for the children listed below:

Child's Name	Age	Amount
1. ISABELLA RUNOV	3	$385.66
2. ALINA RUNOV	8	$385.67
3. DANIEL RUNOV	10	$385.67
Total monthly child support amount:		$1,157.00

Other: In the event the children begins receiving a monetary public assistance grant (TANF), the parent(s) not on the grant with the children shall pay child support as follows for any month for which TANF is received:  Father  Mother shall pay $_____. The parent applying for TANF must give written notice to the Division of Child Support (DCS) and the other parent within 72 hours of the application being submitted to DSHS.

11. Starting date and payment schedule

The monthly child support amount must be paid starting: December 2021 in one payment each month by the 1st day of the month.

12. Step Increase/decrease (for modifications or adjustments only)

Does not apply.

13. Periodic Adjustment

Child support may be changed according to state law. The Court is not ordering a specific periodic adjustment schedule.

Important! A party must file a Motion to Adjust Child Support Order (form FL Modify 521), and the Court must approve a new Child Support Order for any adjustment to take effect.

14. Payment Method

Send payments to the:

Washington State Support Registry. The Division of Child Support (DCS) will forward the payments to the person owed support and keep records of all payments.

Address for payment: Washington State Support Registry
PO Box 45868, Olympia WA 98504
Phone: 1-800-622-4306 or 1-800-442-5437

Important! If you are ordered to send your support payments to the Washington State Support Registry, and you pay some other person or organization, you will not get credit for your payment.

DCS Enforcement:

- DCS will enforce this order because:
  - this is a public assistance case.
  - one of the parties has already asked DCS for services.
  - one of the parties has asked for DCS services by signing the application statement at the end of this order (above the Warnings).

15. Enforcement through income withholding (garnishment)

DCS or the person owed support can collect the support owed from the wages, earnings, assets or benefits of the parent who owes support, and can enforce liens against real or personal property as allowed by any state's child support laws without notice to the parent who owes the support.

Income withholding may be delayed until a payment becomes past due if the Court finds good reason to delay. There is no good reason to delay income withholding in this case.

16. Temporary reduction if incarcerated (abatement)

Important! Read Support Abatement Warning at the end of this order.

If the person who owes support is incarcerated:

- The total monthly child support amount may be temporarily reduced to $10 while the person who owes support is in jail, prison, or a correctional facility for at least six months (or serving a sentence of more than six months), and has no income or assets available to pay the support.
- If reduced, the support amount will be $10 a month.
- Beginning the fourth month after the person who owes support is released, support will be 50% of the original amount, or $50 per child, whichever is more.
- One year after release, support will return to the original amount in section 10.
- Reinstatement of the support amount at 50% does not automatically apply if a Petition to Modify Child Support Order is filed during the period of abatement.

The person who owes support qualifies for abatement. Monthly child support is temporarily reduced (abated) to $10 and will be reinstated as described above.

17. End date for support

Support must be paid for each child until the child turns 18 or is no longer enrolled in high school, whichever happens last, unless the Court makes a different order in section 16.

18. Post-secondary educational support (for college or vocational school)

Reserved - A parent or non-parent custodian may ask the Court for post-secondary educational support at a later date without showing a substantial change of circumstances by filing a Petition to Modify Child Support Order (form FL Modfy 501). The Petition must be filed before child support ends as listed in section 17.

1 19. Tax Issues

2 Important! Although the personal tax exemptions are currently suspended under federal law through tax
3 year 2025, other tax benefits may flow from claiming a child as dependent.

4  Does not apply.

6  The parties have the right to claim the child as their dependent for purposes of 7 personal tax exemptions and associated tax credits on their tax forms as follows:

8 The parties are to file jointly for 2021 and then beginning in 2022 the father shall 9 have the right to claim the children provided he is current with all child support
10 obligations due pursuant to this order for the tax year claimed by January 31st of 11 the following year before (s)he is entitled to claim the child. If the mother becomes 12 gainfully employed triggering an obligation to file taxes based on earnings then she 13 may file a motion regarding tax exemptions.

14 For tax years when a non-custodial parent has the right to claim the child, the 15 parents must cooperate to fill out and submit IRS Form 8332 in a timely manner.

16 20. Medical Support

17 Important! Read the Medical Support Warnings at the end of this order. Medical Support
18 includes health insurance (both public and private) and cash payments towards premiums
19 and uninsured medical expenses.

20  The court is not ordering how health insurance must be provided for the children
21 because the court does not have enough information to determine the availability 22 of accessible health care coverage for the children (coverage that could be used for 23 the children's primary care). The law requires every parent to provide or pay for 24 medical support. The Division of Child Support (DCS) or any parent can enforce 25 this requirement.

26  Private health insurance ordered. _____ must 27 pay the premium and provide health insurance coverage for the child. The court 28 has considered the needs of the child, the cost and extent of coverage, and the accessibility of coverage.

The other parent must pay his/her proportional share* of the premium paid.
Health insurance premiums:

are included on the Worksheets (line 14). No separate payment is needed.

are not included on the Worksheets. Separate payment is needed. A parent or non-parent custodian may ask DCS or the court to enforce payment for the proportional share.

*Proportional share is each parent's percentage share of the combined net income from line 6 of the Child Support Schedule Worksheets.

The other parent is not ordered to pay for any part of the child's insurance because:

A parent cannot be excused from providing health insurance coverage through an employer or union solely because the child receives public health care coverage.

A parent has been ordered to pay an amount that is more than 25% of his/her basic support obligation. (Worksheets, line 19). The court finds this is in the child's best interest because:

A parent cannot be ordered to pay an amount towards health care coverage premiums that is more than 25% of his/her basic support obligation (Worksheets, line 19) unless the court finds it is in the best interest of the child.

Public health care coverage. Mother has enrolled the child in public health care coverage, and does not have available at no cost accessible health insurance coverage through an employer or union.

Other: If accessible health insurance coverage becomes available at no cost through an employer or union, this parent must enroll the child.

The other parent must enroll the child in accessible health insurance coverage through their employer or union if the cost to add the child does not exceed 25% of their basic support obligation. If this parent does enroll the child in coverage through an employer or union, the parent who enrolled the child in public coverage must pay his/her proportionate share of the premium up to 25% of their basic support obligation.

The other parent must pay his/her proportional share* of the premium for public health care coverage for the child. Public health care premiums:

are included in the Worksheets (line 14). No separate payment is needed.

are not included in the Worksheets. Separate payment is needed. A parent or non-parent custodian may ask DCS or the court to enforce payment for the proportional share.

The other parent is not ordered to pay for any part of the children's health care coverage because:

**Proportional share is each parent's percentage share of the combined net income from line 8 of the Child Support Schedule Worksheets.*

A parent cannot be excused from providing health insurance coverage through an employer or union solely because the child receives public health care coverage.

A parent cannot be ordered to pay an amount towards health care coverage premiums that is more than 25% of his/her basic support obligation (Worksheet, line 19) unless the court finds it is in the best interest of the child.

Other:

21. Health care coverage if circumstances change or court has not ordered

If the parties' circumstances change, or if the court is not ordering how health care coverage be provided for the children in section 19:

- A parent, non-parent custodian, or DCS can enforce the medical support requirement.
- If a parent does not provide proof of accessible health care coverage (coverage that can be used for the children's primary care), that parent must:
  - Get (or keep) insurance through his/her work or union, unless the children's insurance costs more than 25% of his/her basic support obligation (line 19 of the Worksheets).
  - Pay his/her share of the other parent's monthly premium for the children up to 25% of his/her basic support obligation (line 19 of the Worksheets), or
  - Pay his/her share of the monthly cost of any public health care coverage, such as Apple Health or Medicaid, which is assigned to the State.

22. Children's expenses not included in the monthly child support amount

Uninsured medical expenses - Each parent is responsible for a share of uninsured medical expenses as ordered below. Uninsured medical expenses include premiums, co-pays, deductibles, and other health care costs not paid by health care coverage.

[x] Parent or Non-Parent Custodian applies for DCS enforcement services:

I ask the Division of Child Support (DCS) to enforce this order. I understand that DCS will keep $35 each year as a fee if DCS collects more than $500, unless I ask to be excused from paying this fee in advance. (You may call DCS at 1-800-422-5437. DCS will not charge a fee if you have ever received TANF, sTANF, or AFDC.)

All the warnings below are required by law and are part of the order. Do not remove.

Warnings!

If you don't follow this child support order...

- DCL or other licensing agencies may deny, suspend, or refuse to renew your licenses, including your driver's license and business or professional licenses, and
- Dept. of Fish and Wildlife may suspend or refuse to issue your fishing and hunting licenses and you may not be able to get permits. (RCW 74.20A.320)

If you receive child support...

- You may have to:
- Document how that support and any cash received for the children's health care was spent.
  - Repay the other parent for any day care or special expenses included in the support if you didn't actually have those expenses. (RCW 26.19.002)

Support Abatement Warnings!

The Division of Child Support (DCS), the person required to pay support, the payee under this order, or the person entitled to receive support may ask the court or DCS to temporarily reduce child support to $10 per month when the person required to pay support is in jail, prison, or a correctional facility for at least six months, or serving a sentence of more than six months.

There is a rebuttable presumption that an incarcerated person cannot pay child support. DCS, or the payee under this order or the person receiving the support, may overcome the presumption by showing that the person required to pay support has income or other assets available to pay support.

When a request for abatement is made, DCS will review its records and other available information, and decide if abatement is appropriate. DCS will send notice of the decision to the person required to pay support, and to the payee under this order or the person entitled to receive support. Any of those persons may object to DCS's decision.

If at any point during the period of incarceration, a person or DCS later learns of income or other assets available to pay support, a request to terminate or reverse the abatement may be made through DCS or the Office of Administrative Hearings.

Medical Support Warnings!

The parents must keep the Support Registry informed whether or not they have access to health insurance for the children at a reasonable cost, and provide the policy information for any such insurance.

* * *

If you are ordered to provide children's health care coverage...

You have 20 days from the date of this order to send:

- proof that the children are covered by insurance, or
- proof that health care coverage is not available as ordered.

Send your proof to the other parent or to the Support Registry (if your payments go there).

If you do not provide proof of health care coverage:

- The other parent or the support agency may contact your employer or union, without notifying you, to ask for direct enforcement of this order (RCW 26.18.170), and
- The other parent may:

- Ask the Court for a contempt order, or
- File a Petition in court.

Don't cancel your employer or union health insurance for your children unless the court approves or your job ends and you no longer qualify for insurance as ordered in section 19.

If an insurer sends you payment for a medical provider's service:

- you must send it to the medical provider if the provider has not been paid; or
- you must send the payment to whoever paid the provider if someone else paid the provider; or
- you may keep the payment if you paid the provider.

If the children have public health care coverage, the state can make you pay for the cost of the monthly premium. Always inform the Support Registry and any parent if your access to health care coverage changes or ends.

Re: In re the marriage of: Andrey V. Runov and Jennifer Lynn Runov

Dear Ms. Runov:

While I appreciate you dropping after the hearing with the order you were sent that is not effective. Unfortunately, because you did not return your signature to us in advance of the hearing you now will need to wait until you receive a copy of the order signed by the judge in the mail. Once you receive that order, you will need to contact DCS and complete the steps necessary for DCS to begin to collect sums due under both the Temporary Order and the Temporary Order of Child Support.

We will mail you a copies once they are available from the clerk's office. DCS will need a copy of the order signed by the Judge before they can address any collections assuming you contact them upon your receipt of the orders and follow through with the steps necessary for those collections. As a courtesy to you I will have my staff make certain that we provide DCS with a copy of both orders at the same time we provide them to you.

Sincerely,

3. Move likely to be approved

I ask the Court to allow me to move with the children before the trial. The move is likely to be approved at trial based on the factors in RCW 26.09.520, as explained in my Response to Objection. The children (check one):

spend substantially equal time with each parent (45 percent or more). It is in the children's best interest to move with me.

live with me most of the time. The law presumes that the move will be allowed. The objecting person can only prevent the move if s/he can show that the move would cause more harm than good to the children and me. The objecting person will not be able to show this.

4. Reason for moving now

(Explain why you want to move before the trial):

Respondent has been asked to move out of the temporary residence that Respondent and children have been residing in due to the Temporary Orders placed automatically by the court. Respondent was given a date of February 1st 2021 to be out of the current house.

Respondent has housing already established for Respondent and the children in another State. The opportunity would greatly improve the children and Respondent's life, one of the reasons being that the monthly payment amount is way below what it is in the State of Washington.

The Legal Separation that Petitioner initiated was only to prevent Respondent from moving as Petitioner stated in DECLARATION OF PETITIONER IN RESPONSE TO RESPONDENTS MOTION FOR TEMPORARY FAMILY LAW ORDER on pg3 line 19-21.

Respondent has looked for housing in the Clark County and surrounding area in order to reside in the area while settling the separation, but unable to find anything affordable because of the cost living being so high and the lack of any financial support.

Respondent has no ties to anyone in Vancouver and experiences nothing but painful memories while residing in Vancouver. Respondent is and has been the primary care giver for the children and has homeschooled them for the past 4 years. The children have an opportunity to have a stable home with a routine and schedule. The last four months of living in one bedroom has been extremely stressful on the children especially knowing that a normal life is awaiting them but when they can get to it is unknown. Respondent has no one else to lean on in this area and Respondent is at a loss as to what else to do if the court does not allow Respondent to provide housing for Respondent's children where Respondent can afford to. The children have made it very clear that they want to live with Respondent.

The Petitioner is 4 hours away in Sisters, OR. Respondent spoke to Petitioner's father on 12-29-2021 at 7pm about Petitioner's mother and how she is doing. She just got out of the hospital on Dec 22nd 2021 from a month long visit due to severe Covid complication. Petitioner's Father informed Respondent that Petitioner has in fact NOT been living with his parents since that time. And that it is by the request of Petitioner's father to keep Petitioner's mother healthy. That would make two false statements provided by Petitioner and his attorney Anna Vujovic claiming Petitioner resides in Washington. The first false statement was on Dec 08th court hearing and the second false statement was on Dec 29th court hearing. Petitioner is NOT residing in the State of Washington. The one visit Petitioner did pick up the children which was on Dec 17th, Respondent's son informed Respondent that they stayed at one of Petitioner's friend's house while with Petitioner on the weekend of 12-17-2021. This coincides with the statement Petitioner's father made to Respondent about Petitioner not residing at Petitioner's parents house.

Basically, the Petitioner states that Respondent is "anti-government and that state and local laws do not apply to Respondent" but yet the Petitioner ignores court orders and lies about following them. Not following the court orders puts Respondent at a huge disadvantage on a daily basis. This condition herein described violates equal protection under the law. On Dec 20th Respondent's daughter shared with Respondent that Petitioner was speaking to her about putting her in school in Sisters, OR. This shows Petitioner's intentions of moving the Children out of state at the same time attempting to take them out of state.

Respondent does not believe that the petitioner is being genuine about Petitioner's feelings about Petitioner's children, due to the fact the Petitioner routinely ignores the court order to see Petitioner's children every weekend and does not consider what the children go through while having to adjust with the constant change of where they will be staying on the weekends. This is unnecessary oppression on the children and Respondent.

The Respondent has housing set up and is on standby awaiting Respondent and the children. It is really time to stop damaging the children's sense of security and allow the family to get back into a routine and continue on with life. This whole case really had nothing to do with the children but everything to do with Petitioner's want to control Respondent. When in fact this whole case needs to be looked at as a whole and the realization that the Respondent is trying to separate Respondent's self from an extremely toxic relationship in order to secure a safe future for the children, where in turn the children will have a better relationship with both Respondent and Petitioner.

5. Temporary Parenting Plan

No request.

I ask the Court to approve my proposed Parenting Plan as a temporary order until the trial. My proposed plan should be approved now because (explain):

Ultimately this is about the well-being of the children. The children have been thrown in the middle of an ugly separation. The children's lives have been on stand by for four months now. It is time to allow the children to be in a stable environment. The only way to do that is if Respondent is allowed to provide housing for them. That housing is in another state and is all set up. The parenting plan proposal does not take time away from the petitioner with Petitioner's children but in fact will give Petitioner more time with the children. The calculated time difference from every weekend to 4 months out of the year gives Petitioner 30 more days as compared to every weekend visit, which is not even being fulfilled at this time. By spending long vacations with the Petitioner, the children will be able to experience actually living with the Petitioner vs. every weekend arrangement that really doesn't have that same experience as a long-term stay does. This is about the kids and allowing them a chance at stability. It is not Respondent's intentions to deprive the children of seeing the Petitioner nor does Respondent want them alienated from Petitioner. But the situation that is currently in play is extremely toxic for all parties involved. Of the few visits the Petitioner has had, the children have come back exhausted, and Respondent has had to reestablish a routine following the visit, just for it to be destroyed the next visit and or replan the whole weekend because Petitioner failed to pick the children up. Respondent is not insulting the Petitioner's parenting styles, simply pointing out the differences that cause stress on the kids and on Respondent.

5. Decision-making

When the children are with you, you are responsible for them. You can make day-to-day decisions for the children when they are with you, including decisions about safety and emergency health care. Major decisions must be made as follows:

a. Who can make major decisions about the children?

Type of Major Decision	Joint (parents make these decisions together)	Limited (only the parent named below has authority to make these decisions)
School / Educational	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> (Name): JENNIFER RUNOV
Health care (not emergency)	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> (Name): JENNIFER RUNOV
Other:	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/> (Name):
Other:	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/> (Name):
Other:	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/> (Name):

b. Reasons for limits on major decision-making, if any:

- There are no reasons to limit major decision-making.
- Major decision-making must be limited because one of the parents has problems as described in 3.a. above.
- Major decision-making should be limited because (check all that apply):
- Both parents are against shared decision-making.
  - One of the parents does not want to share decision-making and this is reasonable because of:
    - problems as described in 3.b. above.
    - the history of each parent's participation in decision-making.
    - the parents' ability and desire to cooperate with each other in decision-making.
    - the distance between the parents' homes makes it hard to make timely decisions together.

6. Dispute Resolution

Important! After this parenting plan is signed by a judge or commissioner, if you and the other parent disagree about shared decisions or what parts of this plan mean, the court may require you to use a dispute resolution provider before going back to court. The court may only require a dispute resolution provider if there are no limitations in 3.a. above. If a dispute resolution provider is checked below, the parents may, and sometimes must, use this provider before filing a Petition to Change a Parenting Plan or a Motion for Contempt for not following the plan. Check your county's Local Court Rules.

a. The parents will go to (check one):

The dispute resolution provider below (before they may go to court):

Mediation (mediator or agency name): _____

Arbitration (arbitrator or agency name): _____

Counseling (counselor or agency name): _____

Important! Unless there is an emergency, the parents must participate in the dispute resolution process listed above in good faith, before going to court for disagreements about joint decisions or what parts of this plan mean. This section does not apply to disagreements about money or support.

Court (without having to go to mediation, arbitration, or counseling).

as decided through the dispute resolution process.

What to expect in the dispute resolution process:

- Preference shall be given to carrying out the parenting plan.
- If you reach an agreement, it must be put into writing, signed, and both parents must get a copy.
- If the court finds that you have used or frustrated the dispute resolution process without a good reason, the court can order you to pay financial sanctions (penalties) including the other parent's legal fees.
- You may go back to court if the dispute resolution process doesn't solve the disagreement or if you disagree with the arbitrator's decision.

7. Custodian

The custodian is (name): JENNIFER LYN RUNOV solely for the purpose of all state and federal statutes which require a designation or determination of custody. Even though one parent is called the custodian, this does not change the parenting rights and responsibilities described in this plan.

(Washington law generally refers to parenting time and decision-making, rather than custody. However, some state and federal laws require that one person be named the custodian. The custodian is the person with whom the children are scheduled to reside a majority of their time.)

_____

13. Moving with the Children (Relocation)

Anyone with majority or substantially equal residential time (at least 45 percent) who wants to move with the children must notify every other person who has court-ordered time with the children.

Move to a different school district

If the move is to a different school district, the relocating person must complete the form Notice of Intent to Move with Children (FL Relocate 701) and deliver it at least 60 days before the intended move.

Exceptions:

- If the relocating person could not reasonably have known enough information to complete the form in time to give 60 days' notice, s/he must give notice within five days after learning the information.
- If the relocating person is relocating to a domestic violence shelter or moving to avoid a clear, immediate, and unreasonable risk to health or safety, notice may be delayed 21 days.
- If information is protected under a court order or the address confidentiality program, it may be withheld from the notice.
- A relocating person who believes that giving notice would put her/himself or a child at unreasonable risk of harm, may ask the court for permission to leave things out of the notice or to be allowed to move without giving notice. Use form Motion to Limit Notice of Intent to Move with Children (Ex Parte) (FL Relocate 702).

The Notice of Intent to Move with Children can be delivered by having someone personally serve the other party or by any form of mail that requires a return receipt.

If the relocating person wants to change the Parenting Plan because of the move, s/he must deliver a proposed Parenting Plan together with the Notice.

Move within the same school district

If the move is within the same school district, the relocating person still has to let the other parent know. However, the notice does not have to be served personally or by mail with a return receipt. Notice to the other party can be made in any reasonable way. No specific form is required.

Warning! If you do not notify...

A relocating person who does not give the required notice may be found in contempt of court. If that happens, the court can impose sanctions. Sanctions can include requiring the relocating person to bring the children back if the move has already happened, and ordering the relocating person to pay the other side's costs and lawyer's fees.

Right to object

A person who has court-ordered time with the children can object to a move to a different school district and/or to the relocating person's proposed Parenting Plan. If the move is within the same school district, the other party doesn't have the right to object to the move, but s/he may ask to change the Parenting Plan if there are adequate reasons under the modification law (RCW 26.09.260).

An objection is made by filing the Objection about Moving with Children and Petition about Changing a Parenting/Custody Order (Relocation) (form FL Relocate 721). File your Objection with the court and serve a copy on the relocating person and anyone else who has court-ordered time with the children. Service of the Objection must be by personal service or by mailing a copy to each person by any form of mail that requires a return receipt. The Objection must be filed and served no later than 30 days after the Notice of Intent to Move with Children was received.

Right to move

During the 30 days after the Notice was served, the relocating person may not move to a different school district with the children unless s/he has a court order allowing the move. After the 30 days, if no Objection is filed, the relocating person may move with the children without getting a court order allowing the move.

After the 30 days, if an Objection has been filed, the relocating person may move with the children pending the final hearing on the Objection unless:

- The other party gets a court order saying the children cannot move, or
- The other party has scheduled a hearing to take place no more than 15 days after the date the Objection was served on the relocating person. (However, the relocating person may ask the court for an order allowing the move even though a hearing is pending if the relocating person believes that s/he or a child is at unreasonable risk of harm.)

The court may make a different decision about the move at a final hearing on the Objection.

Parenting Plan after move

If the relocating person served a proposed Parenting Plan with the Notice, and if no Objection is filed within 30 days after the Notice was served (or if the parties agree):

- Both parties may follow that proposed plan without being held in contempt of the Parenting Plan that was in place before the move. However, the proposed plan cannot be enforced by contempt unless it has been approved by a court.
- Either party may ask the court to approve the proposed plan. Use form Ex Parte

Hi Anna,
Thank you for reaching out.

To my knowledge, as of yesterday evening January 3, 2022 when I received a text from Jennifer, the trailer had not been relocated to the Runov's Joint House of Worship in Vancouver and may still be located on the property located at 382 Oyler Rd, Toledo, WA 98591. Until both Deed in Lieu's record I am unable to personally walk the property to verify the status.

I did send a text out to Andrey Yesterday morning asking for the location of the keys on Jennifer's behalf. As of this a.m. I have not yet heard from Andrey nor Jennifer regarding this or any pending matters.

If you are able to learn of an answer from your client Andrey Runov, that would be helpful and appreciated; more appreciated if you are able to share your findings with me.

Thank you for communicating.

August 2021 Jennifer Runov and her three children came to stay at our house, 9509 NE 135th Court, Vancouver, WA 98682. The duration was to be for a few days to prepare before their move across the country. This was not meant to be a long term arrangement. It will be almost 5 months January 15 that Jennifer and her children have been living with us. We have come to an agreement that Jennifer Runov with her three children will be leaving on January 15th, 2022.

Anna and Andrey,

Please see attached letter of Intent regarding moving.

Jennifer Runov

JENNIFER LYN RUNOV
9509 ne 135th CT
Vancouver, WA 98682
1/05/2022

Letter of Intent

I have received notice that the children and I need to vacate the property that we have been residing at for the past four months. The date we need to leave by is January 15th 2022.

Andrey has until January 12th 2022 to decide if he is going to agree with me moving the children out of state OR if he will be taking them on full time starting Friday January 14th @6pm. The children and I have been forced to reside in a 10x10 room for the past four months while attempting to resolve these legal issues.

I do not want to leave without my children and they have expressed they do not want me to leave without them. Unfortunately, we have been cornered and have no other options. We are being made homeless by the orders placed upon us by the court by Andreys initiation and Andrey is refusing to come to an agreement. Delay and change mind, delay and change mind.....

Trying to find housing in Vancouver, WA has been unfruitful wherein land lords are requiring proof of at least five thousand per month income because of the covid issue and renters not required to pay rent. Every effort I have made has been a closed door. I have provided so much documentation to the court over the past few months attempting to take my children to a home. Housing is unaffordable in this area, especially for someone caring for three kids alone with no job and no child support. A more recent attempt was to place a trailer on my churches parking lot for temporary housing, that was turned down regardless of the fact that another family resides at the church in an Rv. And that family is not even a member of the church, yet I am. Examples like this go on and on, every attempt is a failure due to the fact that Andrey keeps calling every person that is willing to help and sabotages the deal, mainly the person does not want to get into the middle of anything therefore backs out of helping once speaking with Andrey. Any sabotage attempts Andrey will not force any form of a reconciling of the marriage. The marriage is over and that is it. Now we deal with the issue of the children.

I do have a home for the children and I in Johnstown, PA and would very much like my children to move there with me so that I can continue to homeschool them and raise them. I will be leaving to Pennsylvania shortly after January 15th 2022. A new parenting plan has been filed with the county clerk and served to all parties on January 3rd 2022. The parenting plan was written with the goal of them coming with me to PA. At this point it is in Andreys hands what he decides though it really pains me to think that their education I and the children have worked so hard at may be tanked by placing them in public school and day care. And that they will not be with their mother they have been with nearly every day all day their lives.

But their mental health and having a roof supersede that of their education and of their own wants and my own wants, so I will rest on that.

The only thing left to do is to allow Andrey V. Runov to move the children out of state to reside with him where he resides in Sisters, OR if he does not agree to me taking them out of state as of January 14th 2022. On Dec 17th @7:02pm through text message Andrey stated that he has a place for them, regardless of his false claims of residing in Vancouver, WA. The children have suffered enough these past four plus months being in the middle of this battle. If it is Andreys desire to be their full-time parent even against the children's own desire then Andrey can deal with the lifetime of resentment he will bear on a daily basis that will come from the children through their teenage years and beyond. In other words, resentment is a relentless punisher of selfishness.

Ms. Runov,

Mr. Runov does not object to you moving out of state but will be objecting to the children moving out of state. He is more than happy to keep the kids full time here in Washington. If this is acceptable to you, I can circulate an agreed Parenting Plan order to that effect. If you do not accept, we will be filing a Motion to Appoint a Guardian ad Litem for the kids and set the matter for a separate hearing.

With regards to the trailer, my client is fine with you having temporary use of the trailer to live in, we just would require we know the exact address where it will be at all times. Andrey said he gave the keys to you via a third party and you could arrange to have the trailer moved. Have you been able to move the trailer, and if so where is it located?

Thank you,

Anna V.

Ms. Runov,

Attached please find a draft Final Parenting Plan and CR2A (interim agreement) for your review and signature. If approved, please sign and return via email. I will then send to the state for approval and signature. Once signed, I will enter the order with the court. If you have any questions or concerns, please let me know. I will need to file motions tomorrow if we do not receive signed orders today.

Andrey did inform that you have already left Washington and that during the last exchange, the children were given to him with all their belongings. If there are any logins or passwords for the home schooling, please provide so he can get them up to speed. The children's primary residence at this time is below, which is his parent's address. Andrey intends to move at some point in the near future to another residence in the Vancouver area, and will inform you of the address when he does.

Child's name	Age

3. Reasons for putting limitations on a parent (under RCW 26.09.131)

Neither parent has any of these problems.
  - b. Other problems that may harm the children's best interests:

Neither parent has any of these problems.

4. Limitations on a parent

Does not apply. There are no reasons for limitations checked in 1.a. or 1.b. above.

5. Decision-making

When the children are with you, you are responsible for them. You can make day-to-day decisions for the children when they are with you, including decisions about safety and emergency health care. Major decisions must be made as follows:

a. Who can make major decisions about the children?

Type of Major Decision	Joint (parents make these decisions together)	Limited (only the parent named below has authority to make these decisions)
School / Educational	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Health care (not emergency)	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

b. Reasons for limits on major decision-making, if any:

There are no reasons to limit major decision-making.

6. Dispute Resolution

Important! After this parenting plan is agreed by a judge or commissioner, if you and the other parent disagree about shared decisions or what parts of this plan mean, the court may require you to use a dispute resolution provider before going back to court. The court may only require a dispute resolution provider if there are no limitations in 1.a. above. If a dispute resolution provider is checked below, the parents may, and sometimes must, use this provider before filing a Petition to Change a Parenting Plan or a Motion for Contempt for not following the plan. Check your county's Local Court Rules.

- a. The parents will go to court (without having to go to mediation, arbitration, or counseling).

7. Custodian

The custodian is Audrey Plummer solely for the purpose of all state and federal statutes which require a designation or determination of custody. Even though one parent is called the custodian, this does not change the parenting rights and responsibilities described in this plan.

(Washington law generally refers to parenting time and decision-making, rather than custody. However, some state and federal laws require that one person be named the custodian. The custodian is the person with whom the children are scheduled to reside a majority of their time.)

Parenting Time Schedule (Residential Provisions)

Complete the parenting time schedule in sections 8 – 11.

8. School Schedule

a. Children under school-age

The schedule for children under school-age is the same as for school-age children.

b. School-age children

This schedule will apply immediately.

The children are scheduled to live with Andrey Rurov except when they are scheduled to live with Jennifer Rurov.

9. Summer Schedule

Summer begins and ends according to the school calendar.

The Summer Schedule is the same as the School Schedule except that Jennifer Rurov shall spend 3 weeks of uninterrupted vacation time with the children each summer. The parents shall confirm their vacation schedules in writing by the end of May each year (Skip to 10.)

10. Holiday Schedule (includes school breaks and special occasions)

The children are scheduled to spend holidays, school breaks, and special occasions as follows:

Spring Break – Begins at release of school and ends day before school recommences at 12:00 PM

Every year with Jennifer Rurov

Thanksgiving Day / Break – Begins and ends day prior to holiday at 6:00 PM to day before school starts no later than 6:00 PM

Odd years with Andrey Rurov; Even years with the other parent

Christmas Eve / Day – Begins and ends day prior to holiday at 6:00 PM to day before school starts no later than 6:00 PM

1 Odd years with Jennifer Rusev; Even years with the other parent

3 Reported: Families in Washington observe a broad range of religions and traditions. This Parenting
4 Plan can provide for how children will spend time on other significant days. (Examples: Eid, Passover, Easter, Chinese New Year, Birthdays, etc.) Add lines as needed.

5 11. Conflicts in Scheduling

6 The Holiday Schedule must be observed over all other schedules, if there are conflicts
7 within the Holiday Schedule:

8 Named holidays shall be followed before school breaks.

9 12. Transportation Arrangements

10 The children will be exchanged for parenting time (picked up and dropped off) at the 11 airport, unless otherwise agreed upon by both parents.

12 Who is responsible for arranging transportation?

13 The dropping off parent - The parent whose parenting time is ending must arrange
14 to have the children dropped off.

15 Other details: Each parent must arrange transportation to airport and each parent to pay
16 for outgoing flight costs for the children.

17 13. Moving with the Children (Relocation)

18 Anyone with majority or substantially equal residential time (at least 45 percent) who 19 wants to move with the children must notify every other person who has court-ordered
20 time with the children.

21 Move to a different school district

22 If the move is to a different school district, the relocating person must complete the form
23 Notice of Intent to Move with Children (FL Relocate 701) and deliver it at least 60 days
24 before the intended move.

25 Exceptions:

- 26 • If the relocating person could not reasonably have known enough information to complete the form in time to give 60 days' notice, she must give notice within five days after learning the information.
- If the relocating person is relocating to a domestic violence shelter or moving to avoid a clear, immediate, and unreasonable risk to health or safety, notice may be delayed 21 days.
- If information is protected under a court order or the address confidentiality program, it may be withheld from the notice.
- A relocating person who believes that giving notice would put her/himself or a child at unreasonable risk of harm, may ask the court for permission to leave things out of the notice or to be allowed to move without giving notice. Use form Motion to Limit Notice of Intent to Move with Children (Ex Parte) (FL Relocate 702).

The Notice of Intent to Move with Children can be delivered by having someone personally serve the other party or by any form of mail that requires a return receipt.

If the relocating person wants to change the Parenting Plan because of the move, she must deliver a proposed Parenting Plan together with the Notice.

Move within the same school district

If the move is within the same school district, the relocating person still has to let the other parent know. However, the notice does not have to be served personally or by mail with a return receipt. Notice to the other party can be made in any reasonable way. No specific form is required.

Warning! If you do not notify...

A relocating person who does not give the required notice may be found in contempt of court. If that happens, the court can impose sanctions. Sanctions can include requiring the relocating person to bring the children back if the move has already happened, and ordering the relocating person to pay the other side's costs and lawyer's fees.

Right to object

A person who has court-ordered time with the children can object to a move to a different school district and/or to the relocating person's proposed Parenting Plan. If the move is within the same school district, the other party doesn't have the right to object to the move but she may ask to change the Parenting Plan if there are adequate reasons under the modification law (FCW 26.09.090).

An objection is made by filing the Objection about Moving with children and Petition about Changing a Parenting/Custody Order (Relocation) (form FL Relocate 721). File your Objection with the court and serve a copy on the relocating person and anyone else who has court-ordered time with the children. Service of the Objection must be by personal service or by mailing a copy to each person by any form of mail that requires a return receipt. The Objection must be filed and served no later than 30 days after the Notice of Intent to Move with Children was received.

Right to move

During the 30 days after the Notice was served, the relocating person may not move to a different school district with the children unless she has a court order allowing the move.

After the 30 days, if no Objection is filed, the relocating person may move with the children without getting a court order allowing the move.

After the 30 days, if an Objection has been filed, the relocating person may move with the children pending the final hearing on the Objection unless:

- The other party gets a court order saying the children cannot move, or
- The other party has scheduled a hearing to take place no more than 15 days after the date the Objection was served on the relocating person. (However, the relocating person may ask the court for an order allowing the move even though a

Further, each parent shall have access to all educational records of the minor child, including but not limited to progress reports, PTA notices, etc. Each party is hereby required to sign any documents that may be necessary to effectuate this provision. Neither parent may veto the access requested by the other parent.

BEST INTERESTS:

The residential arrangements defined above are provided for in the best interests of the child. The child's interests are best served by a full and regular pattern of contact with both parents, responsiveness and cooperation by both parents, involvement by both parents in all aspects of the child's needs and a reasonably consistent routine of activities, values and discipline throughout both homes. Absence, inconsistency and conflict are opposed to the best interests

1 of the children.

2 SCHOOL ACTIVITIES:

3 Each parent shall have the right and responsibility to ensure that the child attend school and 4 other scheduled activities while in that parent's care. Activities shall not be scheduled to 8 regardless of the residential schedule.

9 ADDRESS:

10 Each parent shall provide the other with the address and phone number of his/her residence

19 COOPERATION AND RESPECT:

20 Each parent agrees to exert every reasonable effort to maintain free access and unhindered
21 contact and communication between the child and the other parent, and to promote the
22 emotions of affection, love and respect between the child and the other parent.

23 Each parent agrees to refrain from words or conduct, and further agrees to discourage other
24 persons from uttering words or engaging in conduct, which would have a tendency to estrange
25 the child from the other parent, to damage the opinion of the child as to the other parent, or
26 which would impair the natural development of the child's love and respect for the other parent.

27 Each parent agrees to honor one another's parenting style, privacy and authority. Neither
28 parent shall interfere in the parenting style of the other nor shall either parent make plans or
29 arrangements that would impinge upon the other parent's authority or time with the children
30 without the express agreement of the other. Each parent shall encourage the child to discuss
31 his or her grievances against a parent directly with the other parent. It is the intent of both

Reply to all: Parties mentioned below-International Public Statement- This will be published in the newspaper.

1: Aundrey has not received any form of custody agreement from the mother. The children have not been abandoned in any way and a formal Public Notice will be published in the newspaper to that effect within the week.

2: All actions since June have been recorded and all texts will be published in the newspaper to prepare for a Human Rights Violations case against Anna Vujovic, Aundrey Runov, Mr. Collier, and Miss Sassar, Emmanuel Baptist Church and all of its members and certain members within the Baptist Church. Please prepare the members of the Baptist Church because its name and its crimes are going to be published all across the country. .

3: There are multiple human rights violations that have taken place and those human rights violations will not be ignored. There is nothing wrong with dropping off children to their father wherein he is not to be rewarded for said actions by the mother of the children with some frivolous filing by some 2 bit attorney with whom has ignored many human rights violations against a mother and her children. Jennifer Ryalls/Runov was instructed to leave the state for her own protection against the multiple microaggressions made by the aforementioned parties which has turned into full fledged human rights violations and death threat by one Aundrey Runov 01-08-2022. We have never seen so many sneaky people committing nefarious acts right out in the open and expect that no one sees those nefarious acts.

by one Aundrey Runov 01-08-2022. We have never seen so many sneaky people committing nefarious acts right out in the open and expect that no one sees those nefarious acts.

It is highly advised to all aforementioned parties above that you all hire some very intelligent attorneys to litigate your human rights violations because of as much evidence that has been collected in the past six months against each and everyone one of you. If anyone moves forward to try to make a quick end to this situation by filing frivolous motions in an attempt to hide the human right violations, you will be charged with contempt of human rights. It is best that all of you remain silent until all evidence is filed and presented to the International Public Community. All abuses are going to be public from now on. Everything that is said and sent will be published in the newspaper.

We realize that all parties believed this was a rap and problem solved. That is what we wanted you to think and these emails prove it. Jennifer Ryalls/Runov does have a force behind her and has had this support this whole time. All of you thought you were kicking around a single mother which allowed everyone to find out the truth about all parties mentioned above. Thank you to all that showed your true colors when you thought you were alone with Jennifer Ryalls/Runov. We have heard the phone calls and the threats made by Aundrey Runov against Jennifer when he thought he was alone with her. We have read and witnessed all of the abusive texts sent. Aundrey Runov is a fool and believes his abuse will not be known when in fact the information will be presented to the Public. Our Publication outlets are read by many people, one in particular with millions of subscribers each week. Get ready to be famous and this is a Public Trial, not some nefarious private court hearing.

No agreement will be signed by the mother, Jenifer Ryalls/Runov, nothing will be agreed to in any way and all past agreements are hereby withdrawn as of 01-10-2022. The father of the children just needs to watch his own children and cease and desist trying to take advantage of a situation to get out of paying the child support. Those children will be with their mother regardless of all nefarious plans made by all aforementioned parties. By the time this is all said and done,

By the time this is all said and done, Mr. Runov and his citizen status will be in question and we will push for deportation of his person once all abuse is exposed in the newspaper. Immigration and Naturalization will be notified of all human rights violations. This case will help many other people when dealing with this same lack of empathy.

Response: to the email from January 10th concerning Jenifer Ryalls/Runov and all who are acting on her behalf.

- Any generalized accusation will be looked upon as having no merit.

Exhibit 40

1 Neither parent has any of these problems.

2 4. Limitations on a parent

3 Does not apply. There are no reasons for limitations checked in 3.a. or 3.b. above.

4 5. Decision-making

5 When the children are with you, you are responsible for them. You can make day-to-day decisions for the children when they are with you, including decisions about safety and emergency health care. Major decisions must be made as follows:

6 a. Who can make major decisions about the children?

Type of Major Decision	Joint (parents make these decisions together)	Limited (only the parent named below has authority to make these decisions)
School / Educational	[X]
Health care (not emergency)	[X]

7 b. Reasons for limits on major decision-making, if any:

8 There are no reasons to limit major decision-making.

9 6. Dispute Resolution

Important! After this parenting plan is signed by a judge or commissioner, if you and the other parent disagree about stated decisions or what parts of this plan mean, the court may require you to use a dispute resolution provider before going back to court. The court may only require a dispute resolution provider if there are no limitations in 3.a. above. If a dispute resolution provider is checked below, the parents may, and sometimes must, use this provider before filing a Petition to Change a Parenting Plan or a Motion for Contempt for not following the plan. Check your county's Local Court Rules.

10 a. The parents will go to court (without having to go to mediation, arbitration, or counseling).

11 7. Custodian

12 The custodian is Andrew Runner solely for the purpose of all state and federal statutes which require a designation or determination of custody. Even though one parent is called the custodian, this does not change the parenting rights and responsibilities described in this plan.

1 (Washington law generally refers to parenting time and decision-making, rather than custody. However, some
2 state and federal laws require that one person be named the custodian. The custodian is the person with
3 whom the children are scheduled to reside a majority of their time.)

3 Parenting Time Schedule (Residential Provisions)

4 Complete the parenting time schedule in sections 8 – 11.

5 8. School Schedule

6 a. Children under school-age

7 The schedule for children under school-age is the same as for school-age children.

8 b. School-age children

9 This schedule will apply immediately.

10 The children are scheduled to live with Andrey Runov except when they are scheduled to 11 live with Jennifer Runov.

12 9. Summer Schedule

13 Summer begins and ends according to the school calendar.

14 The Summer Schedule is the same as the School Schedule except that Jennifer Runov 15 shall spend 3 weeks of uninterrupted vacation time with the children each summer. The 16 parents shall confirm their vacation schedules in writing by the end of May each year. (Skip to 10.)

17 10. Holiday Schedule (includes school breaks and special occasions)

18 The children are scheduled to spend holidays, school breaks, and special occasions as 19 follows:

19 Spring Break – Begins at release of school and ends day before school
20 recommences at 12:00 PM

21 Every year with Jennifer Runov

22 Thanksgiving Day / Break – Begins and ends day prior to holiday at 6:00 PM to day
23 before school starts no later than 6:00 PM.

24 Odd years with Andrey Runov; Even years with the other parent

Christmas Eve / Day – Begins and ends day prior to holiday at 6:00 PM to day before school starts no later than 6:00 PM.

Odd years with Jennifer Runov; Even years with the other parent

Important! Families in Washington observe a broad range of religions and traditions. Your Parenting Plan can provide for how children will spend time on other significant days. (Examples: Eid, Passover, Easter, Chinese New Year, birthdays, etc.) Add lines as needed.

4 11. Conflicts in Scheduling

5 The Holiday Schedule must be observed over all other schedules. If there are conflicts
6 within the Holiday Schedule:

7 Named holidays shall be followed before school breaks.

8 12. Transportation Arrangements

9 The children will be exchanged for parenting time (picked up and dropped off) at the 10 airport, unless otherwise agreed upon by both parents.

11 Who is responsible for arranging transportation?

12 The dropping off parent - The parent whose parenting time is ending must arrange
13 to have the children dropped off.

14 Other details: Each parent must arrange transportation to airport and each parent to pay
15 for outgoing flight costs for the children.

16 13. Moving with the Children (Relocation)

17 Anyone with majority or substantially equal residential time (at least 45 percent) who 18 wants to move with the children must notify every other person who has court-ordered
19 time with the children.

20 Move to a different school district

21 If the move is to a different school district, the relocating person must complete the form
22 Notice of Intent to Move with Children (FL Relocate 701) and deliver it at least 60 days
23 before the intended move.

24 Exceptions:

- If the relocating person could not reasonably have known enough information to complete the form in time to give 60 days' notice, s/he must give notice within five days after learning the information.
- If the relocating person is relocating to a domestic violence shelter or moving to avoid a clear, immediate, and unreasonable risk to health or safety, notice may be delayed 21 days.
- If information is protected under a court order or the address confidentiality program, it may be withheld from the notice.
- A relocating person who believes that giving notice would put her/himself or a child at unreasonable risk of harm, may ask the court for permission to leave things out of this notice or to be allowed to move without giving notice. Use form Motion to

Limit Notice of Intent to Move with Children (Ex Parte) (FL Relocate 702).

The Notice of Intent to Move with Children can be delivered by having someone personally serve the other party or by any form of mail that requires a return receipt.

If the relocating person wants to change the Parenting Plan because of the move, she must deliver a proposed Parenting Plan together with the Notice.

Move within the same school district

If the move is within the same school district, the relocating person still has to let the other parent know. However, the notice does not have to be served personally or by mail with a return receipt. Notice to the other party can be made in any reasonable way. No specific form is required.

Warning! if you do not notify...

A relocating person who does not give the required notice may be found in contempt of court. If that happens, the court can impose sanctions. Sanctions can include requiring the relocating person to bring the children back if the move has already happened, and ordering the relocating person to pay the other side's costs and lawyer's fees.

Right to object

A person who has court-ordered time with the children can object to a move to a different school district and/or to the relocating person's proposed Parenting Plan. If the move is within the same school district, the other party doesn't have the right to object to the move but she may ask to change the Parenting Plan if there are adequate reasons under the modification law (RCW 26.09.260).

An objection is made by filing the Objection about Moving with children and Petition about Changing a Parenting/Custody Order (Relocation) (form FL Relocate 721). File your Objection with the court and serve a copy on the relocating person and anyone else who has court-ordered time with the children. Service of the Objection must be by personal service or by mailing a copy to each person by any form of mail that requires a return receipt. The Objection must be filed and served no later than 30 days after the Notice of Intent to Move with Children was received.

Right to move

During the 30 days after the Notice was served, the relocating person may not move to a different school district with the children unless she has a court order allowing the move.

After the 30 days, if no Objection is filed, the relocating person may move with the children without getting a court order allowing the move.

After the 30 days, if an Objection has been filed, the relocating person may move with the children pending the final hearing on the Objection unless:

- The other party gets a court order saying the children cannot move, or
- The other party has scheduled a hearing to take place no more than 15 days after the date the Objection was served on the relocating person. (However, the relocating person may ask the court for an order allowing the move even though a hearing is pending if the relocating person believes that she or a child is at

No. 21-3-01443-06

DECLARATION OF
PETITIONER IN RESPONSE TO RESPONDENT'S MOTION FOR TEMPORARY FAMILY LAW
ORDER

I am the Petitioner and make this declaration in response to Respondent's Motion for Temporary Order Allowing Move with Children.

1. The Children Now Reside With Father. Respondent relinquished care and custody of the children, who are now living with me and my parents, and has already moved to Pennsylvania. On 1-8-2022, I arrived at Respondent's to pick up my kids for my visitation, and they came out the door with all their belongings. Respondent said she had been kicked out and since I could provide housing for them, they would live with me. Respondent said she would be staying with the pastor at Emmanuel Baptist Church for a while, but when I called to confirm this I found out she was moving. Brent W.,

1 Respondent's friend, called me and told me that Respondent was moving east.
2       2. Following Religious Cult, Respondent claims the Court's Automatic 3 Temporary Order prevented her from leaving her residence and she had no choice but 4 to move out of state as she had affordable housing here. The court order did not 5 prevent her from moving and she was ready and willing to live in the R.V. we have,
6 which she requested. I also offered to help Respondent find and pay for an apartment
7 multiple times. The truth of the matter is that Jennifer is highly involved with a cult-like 8 religious organization call the Nationals of the Government of the United States of 9 America and Reign of Heavens Society which was founded by Keith Livingway, and she 10 is likely moving to be closer to this group as she has no family ties or other ties to 11 Pennsylvania that I am aware of. Please see my previously filed declaration, exhibits, 12 and letters filed as a submission, including one from Respondent's own son from 13 another relationship regarding the teachings of this group. I am very afraid my children
14 will be brainwashed and fall behind in school as Respondent homeschools them, and I 15 have witnessed her spend hours of her day with this group online and forced the kids to 16 watch this group as well. I do not care that Respondent chooses to follow any particular 17 religion however this group's teaching are harmful to my children. For example, they do 18 not "believe" in our currency and have their own form of money; they have their own
19 citizenship certificates and do not "believe" in the Declaration of Independence.
21       Most shocking, the group sent an email and threatened to file a human rights
22 lawsuit against myself, my attorney, Commissioner Sasser, and Judge Collier and 23 threatened to post stories in some newspaper. See email sent to my attorney attached

1 as Exhibit A. This is consistent with statements made on their website which call on
2 their followers to find named "fugitives" in "violation of human rights." See website,
3 Reign of the Heavens. It is a confusing, dangerous, abusive, and psychologically
4 damaging rhetoric to follow and it seems the group has their own government. I am
5 terrified for my children. They state, "Please help us find these fugitives so we can
6 collect what they owe and redistribute the restitution to the people for The United States
7 of America." More information on this group can be found with these links. See articles
8 attached as Exhibit B.

13 3. <https://reignbulletin.org/notice/livingway-keith-edward-name-holder/>

14 They have their Declaration of Independence, "Human Rights" Violation Notices, 15 International Bills with Outstanding Balances, and seemingly fake and bizarre case 16 numbers that do not appear to correspond to anything in real life. My children should 17 not have to be exposed to the dangerous teachings of this group. Jennifer was advised 18 by Nationals to file a motion and lawsuit against the state of Washington claiming it is 19 illegal for the DMV to charge for renewal of license plate tabs. And that if suit fails, she 20 was told to use the Continental Dollars to pay the fine that Respondent had acquired for 21 not registering the vehicle.

23 3. Respondent Provides No Information Regarding Move. Respondent claims
24 she has housing already established for her and the kids, so she obviously planned this

1 move out of state for some time. She also indicates she did not need to move until 2 February, so an immediate move within five days was not necessary. It is a complete
3 false statement and proof of poor character by Jennifer to claim no ties to anyone in 4 Vancouver, while breaking ties with friends, her older son, kids, grandparents, cousin, 5 aunt Kae Kwon and an uncle who live in Washington State and who helped us get our 6 house at 9912 NE 28th CIR Vancouver, WA and property at 382 Oyler rd Toledo, WA.
7 She also has a church community here that she has always been a member of. Indeed,
8 it is closer than the east coast. She has no strong ties to the east coast.

10 More concerning is she provides no information except an address regarding her 11 move. Who will she be living with specifically? Where will the kids go to school? How 12 will Jennifer support herself in another state if she cannot support herself here? Who will 13 be supporting her and for how long? What community ties exist? She claims the 14 children's lives will be "greatly improved" but does not state how. She has provided no
15 information. Respondent had briefly indicated that the Nationals had purchased a home 16 with their Continental Dollar currency and I believe she plans on living with them. I have 17 obvious concerns about the safety and upbringing of my children in such an 18 environment.

20 4. A Guardian Ad Litem is Required. I believe the teachings of this religious 21 group are harmful to my children and I request a Guardian Ad Litem be appointed to 22 investigate both households thoroughly and determine what is best for them and where 23 they should live. More information about this group is needed and I plan on propounding 24 Interrogatories and Requests for Production to obtain more information. I also do not

1 believe my kids would meet minimum proficiency levels for school for their age and
2 grade level. I plan on enrolling the children in public school if the court denies the move
3 and having the children evaluated to determine where they stand academically. A
4 motion for a Guardian Ad Litem will be filed by the time Respondent's motion is heard,
5 and I respectfully request the children remain in Washington during that time.

7 5. Best Interest of Children. The children want to stay here in Washington and 8 have an outstanding support system of family and friends. I live with my parents 9 currently and they are able to help with childcare and have a loving relationship with my 10 kids. I am a loving father and can provide for their day to day needs and have the 11 support of my family. I have a stable job and environment for the kids. Respondent
12 claims I lied to the court; I have not lied to the court and I do live with my parents in 13 Washington. I work in Sisters, OR for now and that is where my job site is at this time, 14 and I informed the court of this during our last hearing so I do not know why this is 15 mentioned. My mother was in the hospital with severe Covid complications so I 16 temporarily stayed with my friend as not to get the kids or my mother sick. This does not 17 mean I changed residence.

18 I have other siblings and friends in the area that also can assist me with 19 childcare, including: Victoria Ivantsov, my sister, Vladamir and Vera Runov, my parents, 20 Anastasia and Alex Svisostnov, my friends, Andrey Ryalls; grandmother, Olga 21 Sesenko, my pastor, Andrey Ivanstov, my friend and former boss, along with other 22 extended family. Even Respondent's son, Andrey Ryalls, believes that it would be 23 harmful for the children to live with Respondent. The children's residence would remain

1 here in Washington if the court denies the move. I would like to move into my own 2 residence soon as my living situation with my parents was only temporary after 3 Respondent and I separated.

4 PETITIONER'S REQUEST

5 In conclusion, I request the court deny Respondent's Motion for Order Allowing 6 Temporary Move with children and allow me to continue providing a safe and stable
7 environment for my children while until a Guardian Ad Litem can be appointed. The 8 children have strong ties here in Washington and I have a lot of support from family and 9 friends. Not only has Respondent failed to provide evidence to support her reason for 10 her move, plans for the upbringing of children, and means of financial support as she 11 has not been employed for many years, but there is ample evidence to show the 12 teachings of the religious group she subscribes to is not based in reality. This is simply 13 not a healthy environment for my children and any benefit of moving is significantly 14 outweighed by the risks present.

INTERNATIONAL PUBLIC NOTICE

The General Post Office would like to come forward to clear up some misconceptions about this particular General Post Office and make an offer to the United States Postal Service at the same time.

Introduction

This particular General Post Office is the same General Post Office under Benjamin Franklin succeeded by Robert Ralston, then succeeded by Governor Hazard which did not have a successor until 2010, 1310 (Page 9 of 132)

Postmaster General Megan Beaman's succession started with General Ogden in 1790 under George Washington. This means there are two separate and distinct lines of succession which means one line is completely foreign to the other. The United States Postal Service which succeeded the Postal Department is operating as a private company with no government authority other than what foreign Manhattan Island and the Netherlands provides. It is convenient how Manhattan Island glosses over these fine details to

International Public Notice © May 16, 2018

The sign of the heavens is a country of our created by Jesus within Noah's ark and Noah. We are not ready to take Heaven itself and on the third night's darkness and not recognize that the earth is his kingdom. We also know that the new Kingdom of Heaven is in the U.S. Jesus' vision which makes it appear as if nightmare on her hands and the recent unlawful activity with Amazon is not helping her situation. Further, it does not make any sense to fight each other over who has the power and legal authority. It makes more sense to work together so the states can be settled with a permanent population etc... Therefore, a franchise offer to the United States Postal Service is hereby offered by the Government of The United States of America which can be registered here: LINK. The franchise can then place the General Post Office logo on the buildings of the United States Postal Service franchise to show the people that we are headed in the right direction. The Continental Dollar Stamp has already been accepted, so why don't we move further and free the people from this tyranny perpetrated by the foreign powers that believe themselves as gods over the people. Choice must be established to resolve Human Rights Violations.

Steps:

- 1: Register a franchise of the United States Postal Service with the Government of The United States of America. LINK
- 2: Place the General Post Office logo on the buildings of the United States Postal Service franchise to show unity and international cooperation. LINK (possibly by the flag side by side later)
- 3: The General Post Office and the United States Postal Service Franchise can work together in resolving UNnecessary red tape and streamline the budget and delivery issues of the mail.

It is easy enough and the General Post Office can promise one thing, this offer is not a joke nor a trap for admission of any wrong doing. It is time to meet at the grown up table and quit playing the blame game.

And Respondent: JENNIFER LYNN RUNOV (OBPT)

Objection about Moving with Children and Petition about Changing a Parenting/Custody Order (Relocation)

Use this form to object to a move outside the school district. You may not object to a move within the school district.

- 1. My name is Andrey Runov.
- 2. I have a court order giving me a legal right to spend time with the following children:

Child's name	Age	Child's name	Age
1. Daniel Runov	10	2. Aina Runov	8
3. Isabella Runov	3

- 3. Notice of move
The other parent or non-parent custodian, Jennifer Runov, moved or plans to move with the children. (Check one):
 I received a Notice of Intent to Move with Children on (date): January 3, 2022.

Important! File a copy of the Notice separately. It has confidential information. Do not attach it.

4. Do you and the relocating person have substantially equal residential time?

No. The children live most of the time with (name): Jennifer Runov.

5. Do you object to the children moving?

Yes. The children should not be allowed to move with the relocating person. (Check one.)

The children live with the relocating person most of the time. I object to the children moving because the move would cause more harm than good to the children and the relocating person, based on the factors below.

If the relocating person moves, the parenting/custody order should be changed so that the children live with me most of the time. I am filing and serving my proposed Parenting Plan or Residential Schedule with this Objection.

Note – If you cannot answer some of the sections below because you don't have enough information about the move, you may say so, if you need more space to explain any of the sections below, you may add more pages to this Petition. Number, date, and sign each page that you add.

a. Relationships: The children's relationships with each parent, any siblings, and other important people in the children's life. (Describe the strength, nature, quality, extent of involvement, and stability of the children's relationships, and how those would be affected by the planned move):

Jennifer Runov has a strong relationship with our children. However, she has invested a huge amount of her time into supporting a political cult called "The Nationals." This has led to her spending more time participating in the cult than being a mother. She plans to move to Pennsylvania where she will be closer to the members in her cult. Bringing our children into this environment will no be good for their health and well-being. She has neglected the needs of our children to focus her energy on this cult before, and she will do it again. When the children are with me, they have a stable life with a father who loves them and grandparents nearby. Although Jennifer Runov does have a strong relationship with our children, she should not be allowed to take them out of state and away from their father.

b. Agreements: Are there any agreements between you and the relocating person about moving with the children?  No

(Explain): Jennifer Runov has contacted me and said she cannot afford housing in this area and needs to move out of the state and wants to take the children with her. I do not consent to her taking the children with her.

c. Contact: Would disrupting the children's contact with the relocating person be more harmful than disrupting their contact with you?  No

(Explain): It is not my goal to keep my children from having contact with their mother as losing contact with either parent is harmful. However, Jennifer Runov wants to uproot our children's lives so that she can serve her own agenda of moving closer to The Nationals. It is better to have our children remain in my care full time and visit

- 1 their mother according to the parenting plan. They are comfortable with my and at 2 my house and should remain in my care.
- 3 d. Limitations: Does the current parenting/custody order include limitations under RCW 26.09.191 on you or the relocating person? [X] No
- 4 (Explain): There are no orders to limit either parent under RCW 26.09.191.
- 5 e. Reasons for moving: Were the relocating person's reasons for moving given in good faith? [X] No (Explain): She states that she has been asked to leave the place 6 she is currently occupying and cannot afford to live in this area. I do not believe this 7 reason is given in good faith because there are numerous state programs designed 8 to help people in her situation find affordable housing. She is so focused on an 9 opportunity to live out of state that she is dismissing opportunities to live in Clark 10 County.
- 11 f. Reasons for objecting: I have the following good faith reasons for objecting to the planned move: Our children had had their lives uprooted over the past few months 12 because of this case. It has been hard for them and my goal is to obtain normalcy in 13 their lives as quickly as possible. They have grown accustomed to my house and enjoy 14 spending time with me and their grandparents. There is not reason so believe their 15 lives would be any better or more stable in another state than they are now. Just 16 because Jennifer Runov wants to move to another state does not mean she should 17 be able to take my children with her and disrupt their lives yet again.
- 18 g. Children: Describe how allowing or preventing the move would affect the children's physical, educational, and emotional development, considering their age, developmental stage, and needs (including any special needs).
 (Describe both possibilities – if the move is allowed or if it is prevented.)
- 19 If the children were forced to move to another state, it would be yet another life
 20 changing event. They would be in an unfamiliar place surrounded by people they do
 21 not know. They would have to make new friends and start a new school. There is no 22 reason to put them through this huge change.
- 23 If the children were to stay in my care, Jennifer Runov would still be able to move out
 24 of state if she wants. The children would come visit her according to the Parenting Plan but they would quickly develop and maintain a routine if they remained in my care. Their routine would change some because they would be in my care full time instead of every weekend like they are now, but they would be able to stay somewhere they are familiar with people they know and trust.
- h. Quality of life: Describe the quality of life, resources, and opportunities available to the children and the relocating person in the current location and in the new location.
- 25 Our children have a support system here in Vancouver. They have friends at school, 26 teacher who know them, and family to look after them. Allowing them to move out of 27 state with Jennifer Runov would take all of that away. We have no way of knowing 28 what their quality of life would be if there were to move.
- i. Other arrangements: Describe any other arrangements available to foster and continue your relationship and contact with the children. If she were allowed to move 29 with our children, I would either have to fly to visit them or pay for them to visit me.

1 This is the only way I would get to see my children.
3 j. Alternatives: Describe alternatives to the planned move, and whether it is possible
4 or desirable for you to move too. I currently work in Sisters, Oregon but if I were to 5 gain custody of my children, I will seek employment in Vancouver, WA and live in 6 Vancouver full time so that my children can have consistency. I have a strong family
7 support system in Vancouver and am willing to move back to Vancouver full time for my 8 children.

9 k. Financial: Describe the financial impact and logistics of moving or not moving (for 10 example, the timing, cost, and how the move would happen).
11 Jennifer Ruwev is not employed currently and, to my knowledge, does not have plans
12 to obtain employment when she moves. She would have no way of paying for travel 13 costs with no income. I fear and I would have to pay for all travel costs because she 14 is unable to. This would be a huge financial burden on me.

15 6. Do you want the court to change the parenting/custody order if the children are 16 allowed to move with the relocating person?

17 [X] Yes. If the children are allowed to move with the relocating person, I ask the Court
18 to approve the Parenting Plan or Residential Schedule that is proposed by (check 19 one):

20 [X] me. I am filing and serving my proposed Parenting Plan or Residential Schedule
21 with this Objection.

22 7. Child Support
23 [X] No request.

24 Note—If you have other reasons to change child support, you may file separate forms to make that request (use form FL Mod/ly 501 or 521).

25 8. Protection Order
26 Do you want the court to issue an Order for Protection as part of the final orders in this 27 case?

28 [X] No. I do not want an Order for Protection.

29 9. Restraining Order
30 Do you want the court to issue a Restraining Order as part of the final orders in this 31 case?

32 [X] No. (Skip to 10.)

33 Important! If you want a restraining order now, you must file a Motion for Temporary 34 Family Law Order and Restraining Order or a Motion for Immediate Restraining Order (Ex Parte).

35 10. Correct County (Venue)

1 This is the correct county for this case to be heard because
 2 I live in (county and state): Clark County, WA
 3 The relocating person lives in (county and state): Clark County, WA
 4 The child/ren live/s in (county and state): Clark County, WA
 5 The parenting/custody order we have now was issued in (county and state): Clark County, WA
 6 Important! Attach or file a certified copy of the current parenting/custody order that you want to change if it
 7 was issued in a different county or state.

8 11. Children's Homes
 9 At any time during the past 5 years have any of the children lived:
 10 • on an Indian reservation,
 11 • outside Washington state,
 12 • in a foreign country, or 13 • with anyone who is not a party to this case?
 14  No. (Skip to 12.)

15 12. Other people with a legal right to spend time with a child
 16 Do you know of anyone besides you and the other parties to this case who has, or claims to 17 have, a legal right to spend time with any of the children?
 18 (Check one):  No. (Skip to 13.) [ ] Yes. (Fill out below.)

19 13. Other court cases involving a child
 20 Do you know of any other court cases involving any of the children in this case?
 21 (Check one):  No. (Skip to 14.) [ ] Yes. (Fill out below.)

22 14. Jurisdiction over children (RCW 26.27.201 – .221, .231, .261, .271)
 23 The court can decide this case for the children because (check all that apply; if a box 24 applies to all of the children, you may write "the children" instead of listing names):
 Exclusive, continuing jurisdiction – A Washington court has already made a parenting plan, residential schedule, or custody order for the children, and the court still has authority to make other orders for (children's names): Daniel, Alina and Isabella Runov

Jennifer Lyn Rinow
01/21/2022
AFFIDAVIT

Response to "DECLARATION OF PETITIONER IN RESPONDENTS MOTION FOR TEMPORARY FAMILY LAW ORDER" Filed on -1-11-2022 Case #21-3-01443-06 in the County of Clark State of Washington.

Comes now Jennifer Lyn Rinow, Trustee (hereinafter "Affiant") being competent to testify and being over the age of twenty-one years, after first being duly affirmed according to tell the truth to the facts related herein states that Affiant has first-hand knowledge and belief that these facts are true to the best of Affiant's knowledge and belief, and:

Pg 1 line 18-19

Affiant has not "relinquished care and custody of the children" but simply moved out of state to Affiant's home and was ordered not to take children out of state. Just because Audrey is taking care of the kids for the first time in 6 months does not mean Affiant relinquished anything. Affiant is doing everything Affiant can in order to not violate court orders.

Pg.1 line 19

Audrey is not living with his parents due to Audrey's Mother being sick, another lie by Audrey. In fact, Audrey has been in daily contact with Affiant's son Daniel Rinow and Daniel has shared that they have been staying at Olga Fuentes Mobile home, and Anastasia Kotolenko. Affiant has text messages from Affiant's son Daniel proving Daniel's location since Audrey picked them up.

Pg1. Line 23-24

It is of no concern to Audrey where Affiant stays and doesn't stay in fact this statement by Audrey proves Audrey's want to control Affiant and Affiant's every move. Affiant was offered to stay at Pastor Jeff of Emmanuel Baptist church house, but did not see the purpose of going from 4 people in a bedroom to the same exact situation. Affiant was employed by the court and Audrey.

Pg.2 line 2-24, Pg1 line 1-12

Audrey's continual claim of Affiant joining some religious cult is really getting old. According to Wikipedia the definition of a cult is "a social group that is defined by its unusual religious, spiritual, or philosophical beliefs, or its common interest in a particular personality, object, or goal". In the Reign of the Heavens Society Temple that Affiant is part of believes in a particular personality known as Jesus Christ/ Yahshua as their Lord and Savior/Messiah and is not uncommon but in fact the most popular known figure in all of history. If Audrey believes this belief is cult like Audrey may want to check his standing in Audrey's own beliefs and Baptist beliefs.

Pg.2 line 4-5

The court was preventing Affiant from moving as Affiant considers Affiant's children as part of Affiant. If the court prevented the children from moving the court prevented Affiant from moving.

Pg.2 line 7-

Andrey does not know what "the National of the Government of the United States of America" is and this really shows Andrey's constant lack of understanding of almost everything Andrey believes and constantly believes that all others mean him harm.

Pg2 line 10

Andrey has a very clear obsession with Keith Livingway as Andrey has brought Keith up in nearly every Declaration of Andrey's. Andrey's personal attraction to Keith's dog really have nothing to do with Alliant and Alliant's children. This whole case will move along much faster if Andrey would stop bringing in outside parties into a divorce case.

Pg2 Line 11-12

Alliant's motives or reasons for moving to Pennsylvania really is none of Andrey's business, not if Andrey really wants to know the main reason Alliant moved to Pennsylvania is to have as much distance from Andrey as possible. Andrey's assumptions of Alliant moving to Pennsylvania are just that, assumptions with no evidence nor backing.

Pg. 2 Line 14-15

Alliant is unsure what "brainwashing" Andrey is in fear of. Alliant has been homeschooling the children and others at Emmanuel Baptist church for more than four years. If Andrey is in fear of some sort of brainwashing, then Andrey needs to check the church Andrey is attending which is where a lot of the homeschooling for the children took place. Interesting how Andrey has a sudden fear emerge out of nowhere after four years of Alliant homeschooling the children.

Pg.2 Line 20-21

These claims of Andrey's are one repeat. Yet again Alliant has to explain to Andrey what Andrey does not understand. Alliant is unsure of who "they" are and what exactly "They" do or do not "believe". If Andrey doesn't understand that a Nation is allowed to have its own currency, maybe Andrey only believes that debt notes known as Fiat currency is real currency and further claims that private notes are his, who knows what Andrey believes in Andrey's own mind. What is clear is that whatever Andrey believes changes in nearly every declaration of Andrey's. There is a constant change of what is true, the Reign of the Heavens Citizens Certificate that Alliant has is very similar to a Baptism certificate and/or membership certificate anyone gets from every other church and as far as Alliant knows most of the members do in fact believe in the Declaration of Independence. Alliant does not represent anyone except his own mind.

Pg3 line 1-13

Alliant is unsure of what Andrey means by "their followers". Andrey's claim of having a government as being "confusing, dangerous, abusive, and psychologically damaging is Andrey's apparent disdain for law and order and shows a very rebellious nature. To help educate Andrey, here is a definition of Government, a small group of persons holding simultaneously the principal political executive offices of a nation or other political unit and being responsible for the direction and supervision of public affairs. Alliant is part of the North American Political party and yes there is a governing body. Alliant recommends Andrey take some courses on Civics, will help with Andrey's constant fear of Government. Alliant recommends clicking on the links Andrey provided to get a better understanding.

Yes, there is a Declaration of Independence, everyone is aware of that fact and the Human Rights violation postings Andrey is talking about are all valid according to the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. The Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) is an international document adopted by the United Nations General Assembly that enshrines the rights and freedoms of all human beings. Here is the Link to learn more on the UDHR https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Universal\_Declaration\_of\_Human\_Rights. This is clearly a lack of education on Andrey's part. In regards to teaching the children the UDHR that is adopted by the U.S Constitution is a declaration by Andrey of Andrey's views of the United States and its laws, thereby making Andrey in disagreement with the laws of Andrey's governing body.

Pg.3 line:17-22

Affiant again is unsure who these "Nationals" are and Affiant has never been advised to file any kind of lawsuit against the state of Washington nor does Affiant intend to. Affiant's car is in fact registered within the DMV in the State of Washington with up-to-date tags.

Pg.3 line: 23-24 pg 4 line

Affiant provided the address of the place of resident. Affiant was moving to and wanting to take the children also. Yes, Affiant planned where to house Affiant and Affiant's children as that is what a parent should do. Since the end of September when Affiant was asked to vacate the property at Hazelah due to Andrey's no longer employment at the facility, Affiant sought housing. Opportunities arrived and Affiant accepted them. There is no crime in wanting to provide for your children outside of a toxic situation and with someone that is so ignorant that you cannot communicate with them properly. How a person supports themselves in another location is by a job, just to inform Andrey of Andrey's not understanding of how someone would support themselves in another location. The community ties Andrey claims Affiant had were broken once they sided with the abuser in a divorce cause instead of the victim of the abuse.

Pg 4, Line: 20-24, Pg.5 line 1-5

Again, Affiant is unsure of what teachings Andrey has concerns over as Affiant has been teaching the children at home for over four years. Affiant will not be allowing any Guardian Ad Litem in or around Affiant's residence and will be considered trespassing if one attempts to enter into the residence of affiant's private property. This is an obvious control attempt by Andrey to see if Affiant is with another man.

Pg.5 Line 6-

Andrey is not living with Andrey's parents as stated by Andrey's father and Daniel Runer Affiant's son.

The Entities named within this Affidavit of Fact who the Affiant has exposed their lies have Ten (10) days from the publication of Public Notice to give rebuttal or these claims stand as fact.

Affiant affirms that all that is stated within this Affidavit is hereby true and correct in Yahushua/Jesus name.

In re marriage of:	No. 21-3-01443-06
Petitioner:	Motion to Appoint Guardian ad Litem (MTGAL)
ANDREY VLADIMIROVICH RUNOV
And Respondent:
JENNIFER LYNN RUNOV

Motion to Appoint Guardian ad Litem

I declare:

1. My name is: Andrey Runov.
2. I ask the Court to appoint a Guardian ad Litem (GAL) for: Daniel Runov, Alina Runov, Isabella Runov for the reasons listed below.

These children need a GAL to investigate, report, and make recommendations about what is best for them. Appointing a GAL would be in their best interests because it would help the court decide:

Which parent the children should live with, and what the parenting plan or residential schedule should be.
3. This Motion is based on the documents filed in this case and the following information:

Respondent wants to take the children with her to Pennsylvania to be closer to a religious out called the Reign of Heavens Society and/or Nationals. The GAL needs to determine if this is in the best interests of the children or if the children should remain here in Washington.

3 Schedule is ordered.

4 5. The GAL's fees should be paid as follows:

5 Unless indicated otherwise below in section 5, costs shall be shared 50/50.

6 6. Other requests

7 1. Petitioner requests a G.A.L. be appointed from Clark County who is able and willing

8 to fly to Respondant's location for an in-person assessment. Petitioner proposes

9 Elizabeth Arwood, Cassandra Wally, or Caitlin Dennis be appointed as Guardian Ad

10 Litem, and if none of the above mentioned G.A.L.s are available or willing to travel

11 out of state, the parties should use another G.A.L. listed on the Superior Court GAL

12 website. Costs for the G.A.L. and travel expenses shall be split equally.

13 2. Should there not be a local G.A.L. willing to travel out of state, a Title 23 Section

14 5334 Guardian Ad Litem from Pennsylvania shall be appointed to conduct an

15 in-person assessment. Petitioner requests the same G.A.L. be allowed to conduct

16 Respondent's interview via teleconference/video. Should Respondent object and

No. 21-3-01443-06

DECLARATION OF
PETITIONER IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO APPOINT
GUARDIAN AD LITEM

I am the Petitioner and make this declaration in support of to my Motion to Appoint a Guardian ad Litem. Petitioner and I have three children together, Daniel Runov (age 10), Alina Runov (age 8), and Isabella Runov (age 3). On December 29, 2021, there was a hearing held with Commissioner Sasser in which she signed and entered a Temporary Parenting Plan. In this Parenting Plan, I was awarded visitation with my children every weekend starting at 6:00 PM on Friday until 6:00 PM on Sunday. The Respondent then filed a Motion for Temporary Order Allowing Move with Children and scheduled a hearing on January 19, 2021. Since the entry of the Temporary

1 Parenting Plan, there have been significant updates to our case which I believe warrant
2 the appointment of a Guardian Ad Litem. I have provided the court with previously filed
3 declaration under Submission which outline the reasons I believe it is imperative a 4 G.A.L. be appointed, which include the following:

- 5 1. Respondent is a part of a quasi-religious cult-like organization called the 6 Reign of Heavens Society and/or Nationals. Documents, articles, links, and 7 emails from this group have been previously provided to the Court.
8 Respondent does not deny she is a member of this organization.
- 10 2. At the time temporary orders were entered, Respondent was still residing in 11 Clark County, WA. Respondent is unemployed and at the time was living with 12 friends. She claimed she could not afford housing here and needed to move
13 immediately to Pennsylvania because the Court's Automatic Temporary 14 Order did not allow her to change her residence, which is incorrect. After filing
15 her Notice of Intent to Relocate on 1-3-2022, Respondent relocated. On 1-8-16 2022 Respondent left me with the children and their belongings.
17 - 18 3. The children have expressed they do not want to move with Respondent. The 19 children have an entire network of family and friends who care for them and 20 my family has come together to provide a loving, safe, and stable
21 environment for our children.
22
- 23 4. Respondent has no job and claims she needed to move because she could 24 not afford housing here, yet she has not provided the court with any explanation how she intends to financially support the children in

1 Pennsylvania. She has not indicated who she will be living with, who is 2 financially supporting her, or what ties she has to Pennsylvania. Most 3 alarming, she states it is none of the Court's or my business. She has not 4 indicated what ties, if any, she has to Pennsylvania other than the Reign of 5 Heavens Society. I have no idea what kind of people or what kind of 6 environment my children will be living in should they relocate, and I fear
7 Respondent is so brainwashed that she will subject the children to the same
8 bizarre rhetoric that she subscribes to. This organization has sent an email,
9 which was previously filed, stating they would file a humans rights lawsuit
10 against myself, my attorney, Commissioner Sasseer, and Judge Collier and 11 threatened to post stories in their newspaper. The organization has their own
12 fugitive list. Not surprising, a day after I filed my Responsive Declaration on 1-13 11-2022, the URL to the Reign of Heavens Society website provided to the 14 Court was no longer accessible. The site has been taken down, likely in an 15 attempt to conceal information Respondent knows will be detrimental to her 16 position.

18 5. I am terrified for my children. The fact that Respondent is making a conscious 19 effort to not disclose information about her living situation and how she 20 intends to provide for the children with no job or known ties to the east coast
21 is concerning. A GAL is needed to fully investigate both households and 22 determine what is best for the children. Further, a GAL is needed to 23 determine if the children are meeting minimum proficiency levels for school for their age and grade level. It is true that Respondent has been homeschooling the children, but I did not know Respondent was spending so much time engaging with the Reign of Heavens and neglecting the children's education. I am not an expert in education so I feel it is necessary for my children to be evaluated to see where they stand academically. I plan on enrolling the children in public school if the GAL in conjunction with placement tests determine the children are not where they should be.

REQUESTS

I request a G.A.L. be appointed from Clark County who is able and willing to fly to Respondent's location for an in-person assessment. I propose Elizabeth Arwood, Cassandra Wally, or Caitlin Dennis be appointed as Guardian Ad Litem, and if none of the above mentioned G.A.L.s are available or willing to travel out of state, the parties should use another G.A.L. listed on the Superior Court GAL website. Costs for the G.A.L. and travel expenses shall be split equally.

Should there not be a local G.A.L. willing to travel out of state, a Title 23 Section 5334 Guardian Ad Litem from Pennsylvania shall be appointed to conduct an in-person assessment. I request the same G.A.L. be allowed to conduct Respondent's interview via teleconference/video. Should Respondent object and request an in-person interview as well, I request the G.A.L.'s flight costs to and from Washington be paid by Respondent.

NOTICE:

I, Jennifer Ryalls, formerly known as Jennifer Runov, will no longer be accepting Email as a service of process, abinitio. Any and all actions perpetrated by Andrey V. Runov, Anna M. Vujovic, Scott A. Collier, Jill H. Sasser and Anthony F. Golick are considered evidence and not motions or decisions in any court. Anything said or done by Andrey V. Runov, Anna M. Vujovic, Scott A. Collier, Jill H. Sasser and Anthony F. Golick will hereby be used against them. We are in the process of a Human Rights violations case. All of the aforementioned Respondents will be served shortly. It has been the experience of the Human Rights Tribunal International that Human Rights violators do not recognize Human Rights nor the Tribunal until it is too late. All aforementioned Respondents have received notice of Human Rights violations and instead of stopping and addressing them in the first instance, all Respondents ignored notices and used it as an opportunity to claim victory, then proceeded to take actions against the victim with a barrage of more Human Rights violations. Each perpetrator proceeds with more Human Rights violations which is a sign of contempt for Human Rights and Psychopathy. The characteristics of a psychopath are:

- Pretends to care
- Cold and Calculating
- May Mimic Emotions
- Does Not Recognize Others Distress
- Maintains Shallow Relationships
- Cannot Form Emotional Attachments

The aforementioned perpetrators have shown signs of constantly attempting to silence the victim with every breath; blame the victim for having to leave thereby using their Human Rights violations as a benefit. All of these actions by the perpetrators are being recorded and placed into evidence. It is highly recommended that each and everyone one of the perpetrators stop and evaluate themselves and their actions. It reflects better on the perpetrator that once served with service of process that they seek counsel with a psychologist or therapist to address their psychopathy issues. Although I cannot speak on behalf of the Human Rights Tribunal, what you are reading is my observations when I looked into its history. It was the first Human Rights Tribunal established in North America and many followed after it.

Regards,
Jennifer Lyn Ryalls
